

GDMHA hockey report

By Shirl Richmond

With the upcoming Christmas holidays, all leagues in the GDMHA will operate on their regular schedules at both arenas. On Saturday, December 27, at Cedarvale from 1 to 3 p.m., the league will offer for sale used hockey sweaters for $2 each. We had to replace some team sweaters this year and so will offer for sale the best of these used sweaters on a first come, first choice basis.

Bill Fisher is calling in league trophies so an inventory can be taken and the trophies and plates brought up to date. If you have a trophy either take it to your league commissioner or phone Bill at 877-9615.

To the players, coaches, managers, parents and fans: Greetings of the Season and Best Wishes for the New Year, from the executive of the Georgetown & District Minor Hockey Association.

Royal Pizza Kings fail to move up

There was little change in the standings of the Georgetown Industrial Hockey League as a result of last Sunday's action. The three top teams registered victories - although a couple were close-over the bottom three teams.

About the only real surprises were just how close two of the games were. Norval had to dig to earn a 5-3 win over Royal Pizza Kings as did Thompson Construction to edge Total Sports 4-2.

With their wins Norval and Thompson retained their first place split. With a sound 8-1 shellacking of last place Guelph-Clair Sunoco the Sandhill squad remained two points behind them, just one victory away from getting into the thick of the action.

In their 5-3 win over the Pizza Kings, Norval was close to being in trouble throughout the action. They hit first on a goal by Brian Beaumont in the first period on a play set up by Hugh Williams, but that was all they could garner in the first 20 minutes.

Just over six minutes into the second Andre Nolet from Bert Osborne tied the game only to have Norval pull two goals ahead on two successive tallies by John McNally. George Poulson assisted on the second McNally score while Benny Heppes and Dave McMenemy aided on his first.

Heading into the third two goals down the Pizza Kings edged back on a second goal by Nolet from Osborne but then Norval's Max Korzack put the insurance touch on the Norval scoring thanks to a play set up by Heppes and McMenemy.

Final goals were added by Dave Alexander for Pizza Kings from Osborne and Heppes for Norval for Beaumont and Korzack but they really didn't mean a great deal in the final outcome.

In Thompson Construction's 4-2 nipping of Total Sports Bob Marchman proved a key as he racked up two of Thompson's goals.

Fred Harrison and Doug Hills counted the other two with assists on the four goals going to Pat Shanks (3), Bruce Lewis, Claire Snow (2) and Joe Joy (2).

The game was another seesaw battle right down to the final five minutes of play. Thompson came out of the first holding a slim 1-0 lead, bounced to 3-1 after two and then glided to the final 4-2 tally.

Arnie Lefebvre and Ian Syme counted for Total Sports who were dropped into fourth place, four points behind the leaders, as a result of the loss. Don Staddon, Dave Raymer, Dave Holmes and Marty Weaven drew assists on the two tallies.

In the final match of Sunday morning the Sandhill squad went to task at the expense of the Sunoco crew. Warren Craig led Sandhill with a hat trick. Rod Halls added two while singles were posted by Bill Davis, Marty Jay and John Thompson.

Assists were given to Rick

Jr. Rebels play sloppy game, but win

Last Thursday the GDHS Junior Rebels took to the courts to play Orangeville in an exhibition basketball game. The Junior Rebels walked off victorious by easily defeating Orangeville 67-28 in a very sloppy played game.

Georgetown had the game in their hands after the first half as they had built up a 21-point lead. Paul Krowchuk was the top scorer of the game with 19 points while Grady Lenak had 10 points to pace the Rebels scoring.

Major Midgets streak

The Georgetown Sunny Acre Farms Major Midgets have been streaking these past few weeks, putting on a pretty impressive scoring streak in four recent matches.

Coming up against the last place squad in the Tri-County League, Chinguacousy, the Georgetown Major Midgets (who just so happen to hold first place in their grasp) made winning look very easy throttling Ching 10-0.

The shutout was the third of the season for Brad Miller.

Andy Broadbent had a hey-day rapping home three goals and assisting on one, but that didn't earn the top points honors. Those went to Randy Bergeron who showed a nice bit of team-work, setting up four goals and adding one himself.

Paul Martin rapped home two goals and assisted one on the other. Bob McCandless and Mike Richmond were credited with three assists each.

Paul Gingras and Mike Jobb scored one goal and assisted on one each. Mike Buck and Steve Crossman rounded out the goal-getting with one apiece.

Larry Burns and Russ Clark were credited with single assists.

Playing three nights later against Burlington the Georgetown Major Midgets almost showed a bit of over-confidence allowing their Burlington opponents to build a two-goal, end of first lead. But Georgetown came back to score five unanswered goals, four of them in the third period.

Randy Bergeron was again flying hitting for two goals and assisting on another. Bob McCandless, Mike Richmond

GDHS swim team second in tri-county

Georgetown District High School's swim team was involved in a tri-swim meet at the Georgetown Indoor Pool on December 5 participating against Milton and Blacklock.

The Rubels finished second with 142 points against a strong Blacklock team which finished with 196 points while Milton had 35 points.

Individual winners for Georgetown District High School were: Jennie Thompson in the 50 meter breast stroke, Heather Clarke in the 50-meter backstroke, Cath DeHuek in the 50-meter freestyle and Jeff Richardson in the 50-meter.

For the Senior swimmers, Cathy Masson in the 100-meter individual medley, Pauline Heaton in the 100-meter freestyle and John Girvan in the 100-meter butterfly were all first place winners.

Pee Wees count third victory

The Georgetown Standard Products Major Pee Wees counted their third straight victory recently when they applied the winning touch to a hard hitting team from Burlington, coming out on top of a 6-3 tally.

Goal scorers for Georgetown were Bob Dean, and Shener, played excellent hockey. Mark Hamilton also played a strong game, as did Brad McMeekin who is rounding back into form after a lengthy illness.

Earning the win in net was Georgetown goalie, Ben Beckett.
