Limehouse news

Christmas bells ring in Limehouse

The church at Limehouse was almost filled for the Christmas Eve candlelight service conducted by Reverend Peter Barrow. Mrs. R.C. Moffat of Guelph pleased everyone by playing her hand bells for carols before and during the service. The choir led the congregation for carols and obliged with two anthems.

Because of the illness of Rev. Peter Barrow the service on Sunday at the Limehouse Presbyterian Church was conducted by Clerk of Session, Mr. A.C. Patterson.

Scriptures were read by Mesdames Crichton and A.W. Benton with prayer led by Mr. W. Kirkwood dedicated the offering. On short notice the choir obliged with two well rendered numbers and organist, Mrs. Roughley ended with her much enjoyed chapel chimes.

We wish the minister a prompt return to health.

Dr. Peter Glynn has returned from a business meeting in Paris, France. He was one of three Canadian delegates to attend the special affair.

Miss Blanche Brigham, a Registered Nurse, and presently living in Vancouver, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Roughley. We regret that Mr. Roughley is in hospital but wish him to be well soon.

Mrs. Cameron of Tamagouche, N.S. has been visiting granddaughters, Mrs. Michael Payne of Limehouse and Mrs. John Vilestra in Acton.

The Glynn's had son Peter and wife and children, Jennifer and Jeffrey of Regina over the holidays as well as Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whalen of North Bay and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Delle and Mrs. of Ottawa for Christmas. We extend Season's Greetings to all those associated with the Georgetown Herald.
