

January news from Georgetown East Brownies and GGs

The 5th Georgetown East Brownies report the following badges were earned: Dianne Bronsch, Kelly Clarke, Paula Hanson and Patty Rawson, Skaters Badges and Darla Gillespie, Skaters and Athlete Badge.

The 7th Georgetown East Brownies worked on craft work, had a Christmas party and attended the Little Theatre's "Wizard of Oz."

The 9th Georgetown East Brownies appreciated the help of Mrs. Becker, Mrs. Griffiths and Mrs. Millesee in making Christmas crafts for their mothers. On December 9 Mrs. J. Ford made a special visit at the Christmas party where mothers made the supper and each girl was given a Christmas gift and a bag of candies from Santa Claus!

The 11th Georgetown East Brownies enrolled six new Tweenies; Charlene Van Clief, Jenny Daniels, Janice Jickings, Klersten Humphrey, Julie Nipper and Kim Smith. Three Golden Bars were presented to Amy Lynn Hamilton, Linda Rees and Johanna Delroy. Crafts were made for Christmas and the Brownies had a Christmas party.

The 5th Georgetown East Guide Company saw Tenderfoot girls working on Canadian Flag, while others did compass work. Twenty Tenderfoot girls were enrolled into Guides in a special Candlelight Ceremony. Many parents attended and joined in with the girls in songs and dances. Refreshments were served.

On December 11 this Company went to the Senior Citizens with fruit baskets. The Guides sang and danced with the women and all had a good time. The best part of the evening was when one of the senior citizens told some of the girls about her Guiding Days over in Ireland.

The girls left the senior citizens about 8 p.m. and walked to the Captains house singing carols along the way. Refreshments were enjoyed by all and the girls exchanged gifts. Two mothers who were a great help to make this evening a success were Mrs. Brands and Mrs. Laughlin.

Many girls from Georgetown East District attended the Halton Division Skating Party on December 29 at the Gordon Alcott arena and hot chocolate and cookies were enjoyed by all!

Our Brownies' and Girl Guides' float in Georgetown Santa Claus Parade placed 12th with much appreciation for donations from Mrs. Kelly, Abitibi, Domtar, Neilson's, Beaver, Eric Hardware, Delrex Smoke Shop, Webb's Florist, Beaumont Knitting Mills and Park Royal B. P. Service Station, and most of all, many thanks were given to Mr. Norm Shea, of Norval, for again donating and driving the float in the parade!

Works committee holds off

Halton Hills works committee will not be making a recommendation to council on the closing of Saxton and Edward Streets in Limehouse until the snow is off the ground in the spring.

At their Monday night meeting, the committee, after hearing from Limehouse residents who opposed the closing, declined to send a recommendation which would give third reading to bylaw 75-99.

T. Clark, originator of the proposal to close the two streets, also attended the meeting. Committee members dampened Clark's hopes of having the two streets closed when they pointed out that they could not close the streets if there were objections.

They said the only way the streets could be closed would be if all the property owners mutually agreed to close the street and offered to purchase the right-of-way from the town.
