

Norval officers nominated

Congratulations to Kathryn May and Martin Manley who were married in Norval United Church on Saturday, January 31.

Previous to her wedding Kathryn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob May, was honoured with several showers. Mrs. Jean May, aunt of the bride, assisted by her daughter Susan, were hostesses for a miscellaneous shower. The U.C.W. of Norval United Church held a miscellaneous shower. Mrs. Jean Robinson, aunt of the bride, was hostess for a personal and linen shower.

The best man, Mr. Douglas Kee, RR3 Mississauga, was host at a cocktail and dinner party.

A wine and cheese party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Oughtred, Mississauga, with the guests each bringing a bottle of wine for the bride and groom.

Mrs. Roy Thompson read the scripture lesson followed with prayer by Mrs. Art McKane. Mrs. Elsie Puckering gave the chapter from the study book on "Missions at Home and Abroad."

Mrs. Wilfred Leslie assisted the hostess in serving lunch and a social time was enjoyed.

Mrs. Earl Terry demonstrated various patterns of quilts at the Norval Women's Institute meeting held at the home of Mrs. Ina Terry on Thursday evening February 5 with Mrs. Amy Burk presiding.

After admiring several quilts displayed and a discussion on making a quilt to help celebrate the 70th year of the Norval W.I., it was decided to make a quilt using the flower emblems of the Canadian provinces with the W.I. crest in the center. Mrs. Grace Crawford, public relations convenor, was in charge of the program. She gave the motto "Watch Your Footsteps, Someone May Be Following Them," after which she conducted a contest about the W.I. won by Mrs. Earl Terry. Mrs. Crawford suggested that we have pen pals with an institute in Ireland. It was decided to do this so she will write for names to exchange.

During the business it was decided to have a "Dessert Luncheon and Euchre" in April. Plans to celebrate the 70th anniversary were left for the next meeting.

It was announced that a food forum on "More About Nutrition" will be held on February 19 at 7:30 p.m. in Knox Presbyterian Church, Milton.

A social time was enjoyed with Mrs. May Cleave and Mrs. Carrie Graham assisting the hostess in serving lunch.

Norval Presbyterian Church had special music provided for their worship service on Sunday, February 8, by a choir of about 20 voices led by David Esplin of Brampton who also played the organ for the service. The choir sang two anthems, also a solo by Bob Thornley and a men's quartet consisting of John Kup, Bob Thornley, Tom Hart and John Wilson.

Mr. Jack Archibald, a student minister, conducted the service.

The congregation are looking forward to hearing the choir again next Sunday, February 15.

Norval United Church congregation enjoyed a winter's outdoor day on Sunday, February 8, at Stewarttown Hall. Tobogganing on nearby hills was enjoyed from about 10 a.m. until 11:30 after which Rev. R. Walter Ridley conducted the worship service in the hall. The Junior and Teen choirs provided special music.

Following the service a fellowship hour with a lunch of soup, sandwiches, and pie was enjoyed by about 100 adults and children.

Mrs. and Mrs. Tom McGee have returned home after a five-week holiday at Brampton, Florida, along with Mr. and Mrs. Owens McDonald of Bramalea. During their holiday they visited most of the interesting spots in Florida.

Ronald McLean of Brampton judged the International Jacobin Pigeon Show held at Port Huron on the week-end. He was presented with a plaque in appreciation of his judging.

Congratulations to Patsy Williamson, RR2 Brampton, and Douglas Fenn of Brampton, who were married in Home United Church on Saturday, February 7.

Patsy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Williamson of RR2, Brampton, was honoured with several showers previous to her wedding.

Norval News by Dorothy McLean

At a wine and cheese party given by Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Waite the bride and groom were presented with a tea wagon which had a hot tray on top.

Mrs. Beth May held a tresseau tea for her daughter on Saturday, January 24 with Kathryn's two grandmothers, Mrs. Lawrence May and Mrs. Arthur Oldham, pouring tea. About 130 guests attended.

The reception followed the wedding was held at the Holiday Inn at Trafalgar Road and the Queen Elizabeth Way after which the happy couple left for a two-week honeymoon to Fort Lauderdale, Florida. They will reside at RR3 Mississauga.

Lucky winner of the United Church 50th anniversary quilt made by the U.C.W. was Mrs. Marion Laird. The draw was made at the regular monthly meeting of Unit Two of the Norval United Church Women held at the home of Mrs. Norine VanLeeuwen on Wednesday evening, February 4.

Mrs. Phyllis Moffatt presided for the meeting. The rollcall "A verse or poem about Valentines or love" was answered by 16 members.

Mrs. Deanna Cleave gave an inspirational devotion on the theme "love".

An auction sale of items donated by the members with Mrs. Rosie Laidlaw and Mrs. Lenore Laidlaw taking turns as auctioneers was a lot of fun as well as a financial success.

During the business it was decided to have a miscellaneous shower for bride-to-be Susan May on March 3.

Lunch was served by the group in charge of the evening and a social time was enjoyed. The group in charge were Mrs. Mona Fishburn, Mrs. Norine VanLeeuwen, Mrs. Deanna Cleave, Mrs. Rosie Laidlaw and Mrs. Anne Wilson.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Nellie Shea on March 10.

The regular monthly meeting of Union Presbyterian Church W.M.S. was held at the home of Mrs. Clifford Cook on Wednesday afternoon, February 4, with Mrs. Herb Dolson presiding.

The nominating committee for the Norval Community Association have held a meeting and the slate of officers for 1976 will be presented at a public meeting to be held in Norval School Community Centre on Tuesday evening, February 17.

The recreation committee with Tom Pettlingill as chairman and Mrs. Evelyn Hedley as secretary, have also been busy with plans for the community to use the school. They are working in close relationship with Halton Hills recreation committee. This will be an important item on the agenda of the public meeting.

Show your support of your community by attending the business meeting and by being a member of the association.

Mrs. Marjorie Williamson held an "open house" in honour of her daughter on Saturday, February 1. Pouring tea in the afternoon were Mrs. Joan Boland, Miss Carol Fagan, and great aunts of the bride, Misses Lea and Ethyle Breeden, and in the evening, aunts of the bride, Mrs. Lorraine Wiggins and Mrs. Norma Wiggins, also Mrs. Marg Harper and Mrs. Caroline Faulkner. About 90 guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Fenn are spending three weeks in Florida for their honeymoon. They will reside in Mississauga.

Mrs. Susan Bell, matron of honour, was hostess at a dinner party. Mrs. Betty Watson was hostess for a miscellaneous shower by the staff at Eaton's where Patsy is employed.

A large church and community miscellaneous shower was held in Home United Church. Mrs. Jack Kennedy was hostess at a miscellaneous shower.

The regular monthly meeting of Union Presbyterian Church W.M.S. was held at the home of Mrs. Clifford Cook on Wednesday afternoon, February 4, with Mrs. Herb Dolson presiding.
