

NDP elect provincial exec.

Haltom-Burlington N.D.P. executive held their monthly business meeting on February 9.

The executive, on behalf of the membership, expresses regret at the passing of John Bruce of Acton, a party member since C.C.F. days.

Richard Brochu, elected Burlington area vice-president, has found he is now unable to continue in this capacity and our thanks go to him for his past services. Richard's replacement is Bob DeLeuw, who injected quite a bit of lively discussion into Monday's meeting.

Appointed area executive members-at-large were: Burlington, Linda Jones; Milton, Greg Murtagh; Acton Eileen Brown, who has also accepted responsibility for 'publicity'. The appointment of a Georgetown member-at-large is pending.

Ticket sales low for first Hamilton Philharmonic Children's Concert

As of Saturday, February 21, ticket sales for the Children's Concert to be presented by the Hamilton Philharmonic Orchestra were at a disappointing low, according to a spokesman of the University Women's Club of Georgetown who, with the aid from the Ontario Arts Council, are sponsoring the presentation.

It was told to the Herald that University Women's Club's aim is to provide Halton Hills with a unique form of entertainment and if this performance is not a success sponsorship by the club would not re-occur.

The concert, to be held this Sunday afternoon, February 29, at the Georgetown District High School is labelled as a Children's Concert however the entertainment will undoubtedly be enjoyable to all ages.

The program, under the direction of conductor Boris Brett, will feature a variety of special production from the "Minuet in G" to "Tubby the Tuba" to "Chicken Reel".

There will be no ticket sales at the door, so for those interested in hearing and seeing this talented orchestra perform they can obtain tickets at the Georgetown Public Library this Saturday, February 28 or by calling 877-2493.

The Children's Concert is slated to begin at 2:30, February 29.

TUBBY THE TUBA—Charles Daellenbach, with the Hamilton Philharmonic, will be one of the featured performers at this Sunday's Children's Concert at the Georgetown high school. Mr. Daellenbach will provide the windpower behind a performance of Tubby the Tuba which is just one segment in the concert's varied lineup of musical pieces.

Sacre-Coeur PTA

A Parent-Teachers Association for Ecole Sacre-Coeur has been formed and, according to representatives on the new PTA, the group's existence heralds a new era of active parent involvement in the activities of the school.

Ecole Sacre-Coeur is one of two schools in the Halton Roman Catholic Separate School Board jurisdiction where French is the everyday language of the classroom. The school also serves the Milton and Acton regions.

Gage gets federal contract

Ottawa—A Georgetown firm, the Gage Stationery Co., division of D.R.G. Ltd. has been given a $105,000 federal contract to supply the government with writing paper pads.

It was one of 155 unclassified federal contracts, each worth $10,000 or more, awarded to Canadian companies in the week ended Feb. 6. Total value of these contracts was $5,992,956.

New program starting for children with asthma

The Halton TB and RD Association announced the opening of a new program in Georgetown and district. A Physical Conditioning Course for Children with Asthma will be held at the Georgetown and District High School Indoor Pool.

The two-hour program will commence March 6th, and will be held Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. It will include physical fitness exercises, relaxation techniques, corrective diaphragmatic breathing and swimming.

All ages are welcome. Please consult with your doctor for an application form, or contact the Halton TB and RD Association, 184 Balsam drive, Oakville, 845-0858.

The program is provided free of charge through contributions to the Christmas Seal Campaign.
