Minor Bantams have rough ride

The Georgetown Minor Bantams have ridden a rough road this last little while as in their past five encounters the locals have managed to garner but one win.

The Minor Bants dropped Guelph, 3-0, on goals by Herb Kewley, Robert Ripley and Chuck Moffat but then ran into hard times and were beaten, 3-1, by Burlington, 6-3 by Ancaster, 3-1 by Streetsville and 7-1 by Milton.

The Georgetown Minor Bantams' goalkeepers ended the season with the league's best goals against average, recording a sparkling, 1.86 figure. Robert Sommerville, Mike Makovyn and Bryan Bombholt shared the net-minding chore.

Sommerville moved out of town in midseason and Bombholt stepped in and proved equal to the task. All three goalers deserve a lot of credit for the support they gave their mates.

Major Bantams dump Burlington

In Tri-County round-robin play, the Georgetown Major Bantams made their recent trip to Burlington worthwhile as they came away with a 2-2 tie. It was a fast, two-way game, with every Georgetown player pulling his weight.

Tuesday night they journey to Streetsville while this Thursday evening they play host to Ancaster. Thursday night's contest at the Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena will get underway at 7:45.
