Zeta Alpha raise over $400

It is hard to believe that the home of Ginna Brown a programme entitled "A Woman's Name" was presented at the monthly meeting of the Zeta Alpha Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi. Zeta Alpha welcomed as their guest speaker Mrs. Dorothy McKenzie who works with a group of widows at the YWCA in Toronto. Mrs. McKenzie led an enlightening discussion on the problems widows face in today's society. Mrs. McKenzie was presented with a silver spoon as a token of the chapter's appreciation.

On February 3 a meeting was held at the home of Sharon Thorn. Joan Vincent presented a programme entitled "The Pendulum Swingers". Joan showed a documentary film titled, "The Visible Woman" dealing with the history of women's rights in Canada. Following the programme Pat Boetz was honored with a baby shower. She received some lovely gifts from her new son Stephen. A social hour followed.

On February 13 Zeta Alpha held their second annual Black and Gold Ball at the Credit Valley Club in Norval. Over 300 people attended to celebrate Valentine's Day by dancing away the hours to the music of The Shyness. A delicious cold buffet was served later in the evening. Door prizes such as a hockey tickets, wine and gift certificates were won by 12 lucky people.

Thanks go to the area merchants who contributed many of the door prizes. Many thanks must also be extended to those who attended, with special thanks going to Zeta Alpha's Susan Mooney and Noreen McElhorne for their hard work in making the annual ball a great success. A cheque of over $400 will be presented to the Georgetown Hospital from the money raised from the dance.
