

Bishop confirms eight area young people

Eight young people were confirmed by Bishop Bothwell at St. Paul's Anglican Church, Norval, on Sunday, March 28.

Those confirmed from St. Paul's, Norval, were Karen and Ron Sparks and Robert Masson; from St. Alban's, Glen Williams, were Brett Goodlet, Elizabeth Ramsay, Elizabeth Chatten, Kristine Doherty and Richard Bryant.

During the service a hymn composed by Rev. R. Huggie "To St. Alban and St. Paul" was sung for the first time.

A reception was held in the parish hall following the service.

Those who were confirmed received communion for the first time the following Sunday, April 4.

Interest in the "Norval Neighbours Club" is growing. It enjoyed the afternoon on Wednesday, March 29, with seven members absent. Euchre, crokinole, and a game of scrabble was enjoyed.

An afternoon of fellowship is the aim of the group so no prizes are given for winners of the various games. Everyone plays for the fun of the game with no strain on playing for prizes. Mrs. Edith Stephens won the lucky draw prize. A simple lunch and a cup of coffee ended the afternoon provided by Mrs. Nellie Shea and Mrs. Mona Fishburn. All men and women over the age of 50 in the community are welcome to attend. The group meets every Wednesday afternoon at the Norval School Community Centre from 1:30 to 4 p.m.

Susan May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack May, RR2 Norval, was honoured with several showers previous to her marriage to David Grant, son of Dr. and Mrs. William Grant of Mississauga.

Mrs. Micheline Rooney, Brown's Line, Burlington, aunt of the groom, was hostess at a miscellaneous shower.

The staff of Maple Lodge Farms where Susan is employed surprised her with a miscellaneous shower one noon hour.

Aunt of the bride, Mrs. Beth May and her daughter, Mrs. Kathy Manley, were hostesses at a personal shower.

The U.C.W. at Norval United Church held a miscellaneous shower, and Judy Young, Hattonville, was hostess at a miscellaneous shower.

Mrs. Wendy Robson, RR4, Fergus, sister of the bride, held a miscellaneous shower for the groom. Guests were the immediate families and the wedding party.

Mr. Jack May, father of the bride, entertained the men of both families at a "get acquainted" evening and presentation to the groom.

Dr. and Mrs. William Grant, Mississauga, entertained the wedding party following the wedding rehearsal.

On Saturday afternoon March 20, Mrs. Jean May held an "open house" in honour of her daughter. About 70 friends and relatives called to see Susan's trousseau and her many lovely gifts. Pouring tea were Susan's grandmothers, Mrs. Lawrence May and Mrs.

an excellent speaker and talked about several happenings leading up to the crucifixion of Jesus that we should be thankful for.

Mrs. Harold McClure presided in the absence of the president Mrs. Andrew McClure. Mrs. Sam McClure gave the scripture lesson and Mrs. H. Anthony led in prayer.

Mrs. J.V. McClure gave the dedicatory prayer following the offering.

secretary-treasurer. Changes for this year were: nominating committee, Mrs. Ina Terry and Mrs. Doris Sharpe; public relations, Mrs. Carrie Graham.

Convenors are: Agriculture and Canadian Industries, Ian Terry, and Edna Murray; Citizenship and World Affairs, Grace Crawford and Ethel Webb; Education and Cultural Activities, Jean May and Marie Murray; Family and Consumer Affairs, Dorothy McLean and Gisela Malchin; Telephone committee, Doris Sharpe and Jean Harrop.

Convenors gave their two-minute reports indicating an interesting year, and Kathy Chester gave the secretary and treasurer's report.

The dessert luncheon and coffee afternoon to be held at the home of Mrs. Jean May on Saturday, May 1, was discussed.

Mrs. Gladys Chester and Mrs. Bab's Caseley assisted the hostess in serving lunch and a social time was enjoyed.

Mrs. Kelly Mitchell, Etobicoke, Mrs. Ken Simkins, Mississauga, and Mrs. Robert Taylor and her daughter Gayle of Norval, were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower for Miss Marie Feendley held at Norval School Community Centre on Friday evening, April 2. Gayle, niece of the bride, will be her only attendant at the wedding in May.

About 40 relatives and friends attended the shower which was a surprise for Marie. Guests were present from Norval, Glen Williams, Limhouse, Georgetown, Brampton, and Toronto.

Following a couple of contests conducted by Mrs. Taylor, Marie opened her lovely gifts which included a set of T.V. tables from the Guilders of the Credit Valley District. Lunch was served and a social time enjoyed.

Norval United Church was full for the Teen Choir service on Sunday, April 4, led by Terry Laidlaw. The entire service was put on by the 17 young people of the Teen Choir. Each of them presented a reading, short story or poem between the musical numbers.

The choir sang 16 selections mostly accompanied by Terry on his guitar. Mrs. Iva Davidson accompanied the choir on the piano for a few of their numbers. Terry sang a solo but all the other selections were by the choir.

Block Parents meetings set

Parents interested in becoming Block Parents are urged to attend upcoming organizational meetings at which guidelines will be explained and application forms will be made available.

According to Honey Cornfoot of the Local Council of Women who have been acting as the catalysts in organizing the Block Parents program in Georgetown the prospects "are very positive" that at least two or three Block Parent programs will be set up.

meeting the program will be shelved. Financing is another problem facing the Block Parent program. The organizers have approached the board of education and the town in hopes that some funds may be made available for the acquisition of the needed signs from the Canada Safety Council.

Each of the meetings is being held specifically at parents of students attending the school at which the meeting is being held.
