Lorne Scots hold formal inspection

COLONEL R.W. YORKE inspects the troops of the Lorne Scots Regiment during the Regiment's official inspection held two weeks ago.

FIRE! One of the displays staged by the Lorne Scots during their annual inspection was this display of mortar firing.

An Air Canada hangar in Malton came under attack two weeks ago. As airplane crews looked on Canadian Armed Forces troops in full battle dress barraged the "enemy" with mortar fire followed quickly with a swift attack by two mobile machine guns crew.

It was all part of the annual inspection of the Lorne Scots (Peel Dufferin, and Halton Regiment) by Colonel R.W. Yorke, CD, district commander of the Hamilton Militia District.

As a large group of spectators watched, Col. Yorke, accompanied by Lieutenant-Colonel Frank Ching, CD, Commanding Officer of the Lorne Scots, inspected the troops and then took the salute.

The pipes and drums of the Lorne Scots pipe band led the troops as they passed before the inspection party. Indicating the rapid change in the status of the Lorne Scots a large number of young women were among the troops.

The formal part of the program concluded, various display of the Regiment's training programs were then presented ranging from a mortar attack (a pneumatic mortar firing dummy shells) to the display of machine gun crews in action staged by Georgetown's 'C' Division.

Following the program, staged inside a large Air Canada hangar, a reception was held at Brampton Armouries.

TROOPS FROM GEORGETOWN'S 'C' DIVISION of the Lorne Scots Regiment presented a display of machine gun crews in action. The two Jeep-mounted crews were under the orders of Sgt. Stoney Bourque and included Sgt. Stu Dalziel, Sgt. Norm Hamilton, Sgt. Gary Ewing, Warrant Officer Bill Adcock, Corporal Steve McMillan and Privates Jim Angel, Dave Mortensen, Larry Taylor and Robert Wakelin.
