Kick out the Fairy Lake ducks

"We certainly can't be called chicken in passing this fowl motion," quipped Mike Armstrong, chairman of the works committee at his Monday night meeting.

He was referring to correspondence the committee received from the Credit Valley Conservation Authority which recently adopted a resolution that the feeding of waterfowl not be encouraged.

Last winter the town fed a number of wild ducks who, instead of flying south, spent the winter in a barn near Fairy Lake in Acton.

"Kick em out early," said Councillor Ern Hyde, "before the naturalists complain."

Mayor Hill and Councillor Joe Hurst both agreed that the Credit Valley Conservation Authority should advertise to the public its new resolution.

Said Councillor Hurst, "If the birds are not fed, they'll take off."

Surprise party

On Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Doyle of Prince Charles Drive were given a surprise party in their home by their neighbours in honor of their 40th wedding anniversary.

The honoured couple were given a beautiful ash tray and lighter with a marble base and red crystal droplets.

Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. R. Ishmael, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. T. McCaughy, Mr. and Mrs. H. Schoffmeier, Mr. and Mrs. K. Arthurton, Mr. and Mrs. R. Lohnes.

Unable to attend were Mr. and Mrs. E. Rossett, Mr. and Mrs. N. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. A. Pugsley, Mr. and Mrs. H. Allen.

Limehouse report

by Mrs. A.W. Henton

We wish better health for several local persons: Mr. Douglas Scott and Mrs. Glen Scott in hospital in Georgetown and Mrs. Ralph Turner in hospital in Guelph.

Miss Helen Mills is home after some ten days with friends in Vancouver.

Mr. Harvey Norton had a week's holiday in Barbados and Mrs. J. Crichton enjoyed last week at Freeport in the Bahamas.

Limehouse Group Committee held their April meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vic Gallford with 13 members present. Plans were made for the craft and bake sale, the father and son banquet coming up in May and for putting a sink and the remaining cupboards in the Scout Hut.

The Cubs have been quite busy lately. For the past 2 weeks they have been visiting the lab at the Georgetown hospital. One half went one week and the other half went last week. The boys thoroughly enjoyed it, especially when Mike Smith and Rod Deforest had an electrocardiograph done on them. The Cub pack plus the Scout Troop also went to the Ford plant in Oakville for a tour. A special thanks go out to the parents who helped because we were required to have one adult for every 2 boys. A total of 34 went.

The following Cubs have earned badges: Cyclist, Hugo DeWinter; collector, Clive Mullins; Skier, Christian Book; Handyman, Hugo DeWinter; House Orderly, Ian Brown; Religion in Life, Tim and Tom Huggle.

Three new boys were welcomed into the pack; Bruce Irvine, Rod Deforest and John Payton.
