

Minor soccer season is underway

Senior Girls
Dragons, 4 - Blue Bombers, 0
 The first half of the game was very close, with the score at 1-0 for the Dragons. In the second half the Dragons pulled away, adding three goals to their score.
 The scorers were Cathy McDonald, Kim Beckett, Cathy Beckett, and Dena Kent.
Pee Wee
Spartans, 8 - Phantoms, 1
 Although the Phantoms scored first, on a goal by Jergen Hack, Spartans dominated this game, scoring a total of eight goals before the final whistle.
 The scorers were Glenn Cunningham (2), Benny Beckett (2), Jim Flynn (2), Jim Field, and an unidentified player, who wore the number seven.
Bantams
Wolves, 3 - Hibernian, 0
 The opening game for the Bantams resulted in a 3-0 triumph for Wolves, over Hibernian. The scorers were Jamie Hanson (2) and Jim McLeod.

Mosquito
Chalce Air Canadians, 5 - Celtic, 0
 This game was dominated by the Canadians' half back line. Greg Muir, Fred Kendrick, and Sandy Watson were continuously putting the ball through the Celtic defense, creating numerous scoring opportunities for the forward line. Scorers: Hubb Chisholm (2), Mark Snow (2), Tom O'Brien.
Squirt
Wildcats, 3 - Mustang, 0
 Wildcats carried the play for most of the game and came away with a 3-0 victory. Goal scorers were Jason Bew, Chris Cuning, and Sean Cleary. Paul Smith played excellent goal for the Mustangs.
Atoms
Thunderbirds, 3 - Meteors, 0
 Although the Meteors showed lots of spirit, they were defeated 3-0 by a well-balanced Thunderbird team.
 Scorers were Peter Egger, Dennis Mackenzie, and Joey Clare.

Junior Girls
Olympians, 1 - Red Barons, 0
 Although a number of the Red Barons performed well, in particular Joan Gerrits in goal, the Olympians were a more balanced team. The only goal was scored late in the game when a neat passing play between Carol Johnson, and Patricia Turner was finally converted by Gail Shanks.
