Fireworks light the skies over Norval

OLD MACDONALD HAD A FARM was one of the songs played by pianist Iva Davidson of the Ivatoons. Children who attended the family fun night in Norval, May 24, joined in the singing. Meanwhile Norval residents went to bat against the Georgetown Optimist Club and beat them 4-2.

An executive meeting of Norval Community Association was held at the Norval School Community Centre on Tuesday evening, May 17, with Hugh McFarlane presiding.

Tom Pettingill recreation convenor, gave the report on the Fireworks Display held on Monday evening, May 24 in conjunction with the Optimist Club of Georgetown, at the Norval School grounds. Commencing at 6 p.m. the evening included sports, races, ball game, tug-of-war, etc. Mrs. Iva Davidson of Brampton played the piano and sang, and Bimbo the clown entertained children. It was a community fun night and not a money raising event.

Norman Guthrie, Bob Hedley and Randy Fendley, recently attended a Training Day on how to handle the fireworks.

Niagara beauties topic of Silverwood meeting

by Alicia Scott
Silverwood community welcomes Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Breen who moved from town recently.

Mrs. Anne Crawford of England was a visitor with Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Miller on Thursday, May 13.

Community sympathy is extended to the Hill family on the passing of Mr. Ken Hill this past week.

Mrs. R.W. Norton brought home her usual good supply of ribbons from the flower show held Wednesday evening in Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Duffield of Sandy Cove Acres visited old neighbours. Fred was auctioneer for the sale of plants held twice a year by the Georgetown Horticultural Society.

Mrs. Donald Lindsay was hostess for the May meeting of the Silverwood Women's Institute held on May 13. Seventeen members and one guest answered the rollcall. The theme of the meeting was the Niagara Escarpment and its beauty spots which are many. This was our 26th annual meeting. The minutes were read and adopted and a financial report was given. An invitation to visit the Sunshine School was read to members. Mrs. G. Ironside received a little gift from members. A plant sale was held to bolster the treasury. The sale is held every May and members bring surplus plants to fill another member's garden.

Mr. Robinson of the Niagara Escarpment Commission spoke to the members as did several other men. He said the goal set forth by the government is to maintain the natural environment while maintaining compatibility with demands of people who are seeking homes in the NEC area which covers 2,000 square miles.

He showed slides of beauty spots all along the entire escarpment. The meeting dosed with a delicious lunch. Ten Silverwood WI members attended the Halton District annual held at St. David's Church in Campbellville on May 18. Mrs. Reid, was the speaker.

Rainfall so far for May has been 2.68 inches plus some snow flurries.

Ballinafad young to school

Ballinafad Branch of the W.I. was well represented by eight members at the Halton District Annual last Tuesday. Several little five-year-olds had their first taste of school last week. Those who will be attending kindergarten in September felt quite grown up as they journeyed by bus to Brisbane School. The men's choir and other talented musicians in the neighbourhood are becoming more popular these days. They were invited to put on a program for the Golden Age Club in Acton last week. The seniors seemed delighted with the entertainment—so much so that they donated a nice sum of money to build up the organ fund. This was a fine gesture.

Farmers and local gardeners were busy on May 24 as the rain held off, enabling them to plant some seed. It is hoped that the weather will warm up as time is getting on.

Mrs. Eileen McEnery attended the Presbytery meeting last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kennedy of Mississauga visited her parents, the Wilfred Burts, on the holiday weekend.

Mrs. Lillian Shortill spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Rita Shortill.
