

A real puzzler
at Stewarttown Garden Fair

HOW MANY MARBLES in this jar? Kristy Champ, 11, guessed 150. There are, actually, 287.

Sally Bangs new Hornby supervisor

The Hornby Co-operative Nursery School named Sally Bangs as supervisor at a public meeting held June 23. Parent participation in the program, to commence in the fall, has been "overwhelming", publicity manager, Marg Hertz says. Consequently, a new three afternoon-a-week program was added to the existing three morning and two afternoon programs, to accommodate demand, she said.

The fee schedule has been revised. Volunteer parents who invest their time on a regular basis to assist the nursery school supervisor, are offered lower rates. The cost of the three half-day program is $21 monthly (with parents participation) and $29 (without participation). For the low half day program, the charge is $14 monthly (with parent participation) and $19 (without participation).

If you live in the Hornby-Ashgrove area and are interested in enrolling your three-year-old in the nursery school, contact registrar Sue Hewitt at 877-8065.
