

Art in the Park

THE CREDIT VALLEY ARTISANS held their first Art in the Park Saturday afternoon in the shade of Cedarvale Park. Although somewhat disappointed with the size of the crowds who came to see the various displays the organizers felt that it augured well for future years. Among the many artisans displaying their works, which ranged from macramé pieces to pottery, were (clockwise from top left) Marla Jennings, Gretchen Day, Helga Sarkar, Etta Mills, Sue Evans, and Chris Burnett.

Obituary

Walter Harold Smellie

After a short illness Walter Harold Smellie died on May 12 at Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton.

Born in Chinguacousy Township, south of Norval, he attended Norval Public School, and Georgetown High School. In 1924 he graduated from the School of Chiropractic in Davenport, Iowa, practicing at Spanish in northern Ontario and then at Shelburne.

When the Co-Op opened a branch in Shelburne, he went to work there. He was a member of the Anglican Church in Shelburne and later in Norval.

He married Grace Fiddler in 1928 and they lived in Shelburne where all their family was born. He moved back to Norval in 1952 to work for the Co-Op in the district. Mr. Smellie was member of the Victoria Preceptory No. 10 of Guelph, Halton Chapter of Credit Lodge, and St. Clair Chapter of Milton.

His wife predeceased him in 1969. Surviving is one son, Edward, of Norval, and three daughters, Lois Teburn of RR2 Brampton, Marion Wake of Rosemount, and Jane MacIsaac of Brampton. He is also survived by six grandchildren and one sister, Morie Murray.

Another sister, Jessie Evans, died in 1951.

Service was conducted from McClure-Jones Funeral Home by Rev. R. Ruggles and Canon J. Maxwell.

Close populations

In May 1923, statistics published in The Herald indicated that Georgetown and Acton were close population-wise. Georgetown had 2,098 citizens living on its 1,051 acres while the 471 acres known as Acton had 1,742 residents.

Ontario Place. Come and holiday!

Summer isn't summer without a visit to Ontario Place. 96 acres of music, movies, parklands, clowns, waterplay and relaxation are yours every day all free with your admission. There's a beautiful new movie at the 800-seat Cinesphere theatre, called "Ontario/Summertime", a spectacular, giant-screen tour of Ontario's waterways. It alternates weekly with "Energy", the film story of power, from muscles to megawatts.

The projectors and special effects equipment in our multi-media theatres offer a full summer of exciting presentations. Don't miss "Big North Ontario" in Theatre I and "Reflections" in Theatre III.

The Forum, with accommodation for 8,000, is bringing you great names in entertainment... symphony, jazz, folk, rock, ballet and variety. Also the season's nightly programme. And all free with your admission.

Our restaurants, snack bars and pubs will serve you the best in good cheer and satisfying food. The Crafts Shop artisans are at work and the Boutiques have new wares and souvenirs to show you.

Children's Village, the most adventurous playground in Canada, is busy with the little citizens. HMCS HAIDA has the gangplank down, the pedal boats are in the water, the helicopter and tour boats are standing by to show you the sights. Our Storyland miniature golf course is teed up.

Ontario Place is in full swing. Come and holiday.
