Optimists 12 - Tripp Real Estate 10
The Optimist crew lived up to their name and came through with their first win of the season. The win was an important one as it was a four-point game due to a previous rain-out. The winning pitcher was Jim Gordon who struck out eight batters while yielding an equal number of walks. Losing pitcher Warren Crawford was relieved by Jim Kemper. Both pitchers duplicated the effort of the winning pitcher with an equal number of strikeouts and walks. Most valuable player for the Optimist squad was Bob Dean with a homerun and a double. Darrel Weir gets honorable mention for the winners, scoring three times after getting on base with three free passes. For the losers Cheryl Jackson played a sound defensive game in the outfield while getting on base with a double and a walk. Terry Pottruff slammed a homer with two on, to account for three of the losers runs.

Tripp - Cheryl Jackson

Georgetown Tire 13 - Toronto Dominion Bank 5

Georgetown Tire stayed out in front of the Pee Wee House League by defeating the T.D. Bank behind the strong pitching arm of Mark Heidemann. Mark is making his presence felt throughout the league with two wins against no losses while performing on the mound. Kevin Hughes was the winners power at the plate with a double and a triple. The latter was turned into a four-bagger as a result of a catching error. Too many walks proved to be losing pitcher Bob Grasby's downfall as free passes accounted for five of the winners thirteen runs. Ian Seaton was the big man at the plate for the losing side with a triple, a single and a walk. James Craig relieved Bob Grasby in the third and their combined effort struck out seven batters while yielding 12 walks. This game was also played as a four-point game.

Toronto Dominion Bank 11 - Optimists 6

The Bankers moved into second place all alone with an impressive win backed by a supreme effort by winning pitcher James Craig, who had a no-hitter going for 2 1/2 innings. It was not until the final inning that the losers solved Jim's pitching wizardry and erupted for six runs on the only six hits for that side during the game. Bob Grasby hit a grand slam homer for Toronto Dominion, while James Craig, Shawn Zuber, Yves Roussele and Paul Blackmore each got on base three times with singles and walks. Doug Smith belted a double and played a heads-up ball game in centrefield with several game saving catches. Losing pitcher Allen Domanski and reliever Paul Gustin combined to strike out five batters while giving up 11 hits and surrendered an equal number of walks. For the losers Bob Dean and Mike Frieskney doubles. It is worthy of mention that both coaches, Hugh Cook, and Charlie Kellington commented on the fine umpiring which prevailed throughout.

Warren Crawford had three doubles and a single in four trips to account for one third on the winners' hits. Terry Pottruff and Wendy Crawford had two hits each. Losing pitcher Brad Tyndall combined with relievers Bob Dean and Allen Domanski in yielding 12 hits and a total of 19 walks.
