Police Beat
Police arrested a man who shot a dog in the leg with a pellet gun Aug. 28 and charged him with cruelty to animals. Police, who confiscated the pellet gun, said it was not the first time the man had shot at animals. Police said a camera and flash attachment, valued at $25 and an AM-FM cassette radio valued at $150 were stolen from a camper parked in the driveway of a rural residence, Aug. 27. A Mississauga man and his knapsack, a camera and case, a thermos and a bicycle pump, valued at $250 stolen from the roadside near Terra Cotta Park, Aug. 28, police said.

The first break in occurred Aug. 25 when thieves sprung the lock on the door with a wrench or a screwdriver, police said. The second, in which thieves got $20,000 worth of clothes, occurred Aug. 29 after the thieves used a key or picked the lock, said police, who are investigating.
