Congratulations on marriage

By DOROTHY McLEAN
Herald Correspondent

Congratulations to Janice Finnamore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Finnamore, Norval, and Edward Kouyoumjian, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kouyoumjian, Brampton, who were married by Rev. R. Ruggie in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Norval on Saturday, September 4. They reside on Normandy Blvd., Georgetown. Previous to her wedding Janice was honoured with several showers.

Bridesmaids Marianne Robinson and Gail Harrison were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower at the Harrison home in Norval for former Rangers and friends. Sister of the groom, Karen Kouyoumjian, Brampton, a bridesmaid, was hostess at a miscellaneous shower for relatives of the family, and Brenda Ingram, Brampton, gave a miscellaneous shower for relatives.

A sister of the bride, Mrs. Susan Hancock, a bridesmaid, was hostess at a relatives and neighbours shower held at the home of Mrs. Sam Finnamore, Norval, and the employees of Braeside Farms, Norval, where Janice is employed, held a pantry shower.

Parents of the groom entertained the wedding party at a rehearsal supper at their home in Brampton following the wedding rehearsal.

Congratulations to Donald Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lee, of the Town Line, Norval, and Theresa Tudge of Mississauga, who were married by Rev. R. Walter Ridley, in Norval United Church, on Saturday, September 4. They will reside in Brampton.

Miss Lorraine Holding, Home Economist for Halton & Peel, was the guest speaker at the first fall meeting of Unit Two of Norval United Church Women held at the home of Mrs. Eleanor Hyatt on Wednesday evening, Sept. 8 with Mrs. Phyllis Moffatt presiding and 14 present.

During the business it was decided to purchase 20 Bibles for the Sunday School.

The devotional on the theme "Being thankful" was given by Mrs. Nellie Shea and Mrs. Hyatt after which Miss Holding gave an interesting talk on nutrition and calories in food.

The evening ended with lunch and a social time was enjoyed.

Norval United Church Couples Club held a corn roast at the home of Ken and Lois Reid on Friday evening, Sept. 10, to start their fall activities. Due to the wet weather the corn roast was moved indoors.

During the program, Mr. Terry Clark conducted a "getting to know yourself" time with the use of magazines after which the 24 members present were divided into 3 groups for discussions on 3 topics, "Lotteries and Gambling", "Alcohol Abuse", and "Bilingualism and the official language laws of Canada." The leader of each of the groups reported the findings of the discussions on these topics making a very interesting program.

The evening ended with the corn roast and do-nuts and a social time. In charge of the evening were Paul and Betty Johnson, Jack and Mary Crawford, George and Marilyn Smith, and Ken and Lois Reid. M.P. Julian Reed was the guest speaker at the first fall meeting of Norval Women's Institute held at the home of Mrs. Amy Burke, Georgetown, with 18 present, and Mrs. Burk presiding on Thursday evening, Sept. 9.

Mr. Reed spoke on energy, a subject that he is especially interested in. The title he gave his talk was "The Challenge of Our Generation".

For the future, experiments are now underway for using renewable resources such as the sun, wind and water power, using the action of ocean waves for power, also wood and animal waste. After his talk Mr. Reed answered questions on the subject. During the business, plans were made for the display for Georgetown Fair. Mrs. Edna Murray, Mrs. Ina Terry, Mrs. Gladys Chester and the president were appointed a committee for the display. Plans were also made for a picnic and a visit to McMichael's Gallery in Kleinburg on Sunday, Sept. 20.

The rally was "Give your weight in metric." The Agriculture and Canadian Industries convener, Mrs. Ina Terry and Mrs. Edna Murray, were in charge of the program.

HALTON SAFETY PATROLLERS ATTEND TRAINING CAMP

Halton school patrollers attended the summer training course last week at Camp Ryerson in Normandale. Sponsored by the Hamilton Automobile Club in conjunction with local police officers, the week-long camp featured lectures, films, first aid, firefighting, demonstrations of the use of smoke bombs, and instruction for foot and bus patrol students at simulated intersections. Recreational activities between school patrol courses included swimming, dancing, sports and movies.

History Walk Planned

Esqueing Historical Society's second annual walk through Georgetown will be held Sept. 19.

Society president John McDonald said the walk through the downtown area showing points of historical interest and architectural heritage will start at 2 p.m. from Knox Presbyterian Church.

A slide presentation will precede the actual walk. Last year the walk was held in June and drew between 35 and 40 people.

Mr. McDonald said it was felt that larger numbers of interested people could be drawn in the walk this year because summer holidays are over.
