

Hi Ho Come To The Fair

John F. Guy entry from Brantford

Jo Anne Hearn grooms Pino Dextrose for quarter horse show

Lynda Stouffer and daughter Lisa

Jim Moore, Terra Cotta, with reserve champion holstein

Jeffrey Hale, 5, of Maple Avenue has big boots to fill

Diana Collett, 10, and friend

Lori Clements, RR3, Georgetown, with Chico

And Come They Did!

Early fair results

Commercial Beef & Dairy Calves 11-14 yrs. Watch donated by Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce won by Kim Peddle, R.R. 2, Georgetown, 13-19 yrs. Watch donated by Boughton Jewellers won by Donna Stewart, Hornby. Cooler (blanks) donated by Master Feeds won by Don Heath, Hornby.

Best Dairy Heifer - Jersey's Mrs. Eva Harper, R.R. 3 Georgetown.

Best Beef Heifer (Shorthorn) - Carl Coulson, Mt. Forest.

KIDBUNS
Jersey Jr. Champion Female - Mrs. Eva Harper - Sr. Champion Female, Reserve Sr. Champion Female, Grand Champion Female, Reserve Grand Champion Female, Mrs. Eleanor Robinson, R.R. 3, Georgetown - Reserve Jr. Champion Female.

Hostels Harry Moore - Jr. Champion Female, Reserve Jr. Champion Female, Jr. Champion Female, Reserve Jr. Champion Female, Grand Champion Female, Reserve Grand Champion Female.

Shorthorn - Stanley Coulson, R.R. 2 Mt. Forest - Champion Male, Reserve Champion Male, Reserve Champion Female.

IN HALL

Most points in classes 23&24, Susan Pallchuk, R.R. 2, Acton.

Most points in town and county - Bev. Wingfield, R.R. 3, Georgetown.

Most points in Domestic Science Mrs. Jane Kirby, 8 John St., Georgetown.

Most points in roots & vegetables - Doug McPhail, R.R. 2, Georgetown.

Most points in Ladies work class 27 - Mrs. Dorothy Cox, R.R. 2, Acton.

Most points in hall - Mrs. Dorothy Cox, R.R. 2, Acton.

Tinker Bell, a one-year-old Peek-a-poo performs for the crowd while master Brent Boyle checks the pet show competition.