

NORVAL NEWS

By DOROTHY MCLEAN
Herald Correspondent
Susan Coomber and Laura Cannon of St. Paul's Anglican Church, Norval, attended a Youth Rally for the Diocese held at Aldershot recently, and lay delegate, Barry Cannon, attended the Synod held at Jordan.

Congratulations to Mary McClure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. McClure, RR2 Norval, and Ron Skinner, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Skinner of Hastings, who were married by Rev. McPherson in Norval Presbyterian Church on Saturday, October 2nd. They will reside in Streetsville.

Previous to her wedding Mary was honoured with several showers. The ladies of Norval Presbyterian Church held a miscellaneous shower in the basement of the church which had been suitably decorated for the occasion. Mrs. Andrew McClure, Kathy and Lila, were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower for relatives, and Mrs. Jean Thompson of Camilla was hostess for a family shower. Mrs. Ken Reid was hostess for a miscellaneous shower for the neighbours on the line, and the 4H Club girls held a miscellaneous shower at the home of Julie Laidlaw. Mrs. Kathy Hacon of Bramalea held a personal shower for Mary's friends.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Turnbull have closed their antique shop at their home next to the United Church and have opened a new store in downtown Brampton on Main Street across from the Odeon Theatre. The new store is called "Doris Turnbull's Bright Ideas". Besides antiques they will have many other items for sale such as all kinds of crafts, crockery, knitting, macrame, dried flowers, etc. Mrs. Kathy Chester assists the Turnbulls in their store. We wish the Turnbulls success in their new venture.

Unit Two of Norval United Church toured Gage Stationary Plant in Georgetown on Wednesday evening, October 13. John McDonald was their tour guide and explained the various machines that make the stationary and envelopes. Twenty ladies attended the tour and report a very interesting evening. On leaving they were each presented with a writing pad and envelopes.

After the tour they met at the home of Mrs. Jean Dunlop for their meeting with Mrs. Phyllis Moffatt presiding. Mrs. Edna Murray gave the devotional on "Thanksgiving" and read a poem "Thanks Be To God" followed by prayer. The roll call was answered with a thanksgiving poem or thought.

During the business it was decided that the U.C.W. would sponsor a nursery at the church on Sunday mornings during the worship service so that parents could leave their babies or small children there while they attended the service. The teenage girls will still look after the young children who attend part of the worship service but leave before the sermon.

Norval Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Gwen May on Thursday evening, October 7th, with Mrs. Amy Burk presiding.

The roll call was "What I Liked About The Trip To McMichael's Gallery" with those who visited the gallery on Sunday, September 26th, giving hi-lights of their visit.

Mrs. May gave a very interesting talk on the history of quilts telling how the pioneer women sewed the pieces together usually at night by the light of candles or oil lamps after the children were in bed. Their quilting bees were also their social get together. She displayed four beautiful quilts made by her grandmother which are among her most prized possessions.

Mrs. Marie Murray was auctioneer for the Market Basket of various items donated for the sale after which Mrs. Jean May and Mrs. Giselle Malchin assisted the hostess in serving lunch.

Sympathy is extended to the Grassy family on the sudden death of their mother Mrs. Evelyn (Haynes) Grassy of Norval, on Sunday, October 10th, in Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital. She was predeceased by her husband Earl two years ago last August.

Surviving are her children, Jean (Mrs. Charles Armstrong) Georgetown, George of Georgetown, Colleen, (Mrs. John Beeby) Brampton, Shirley (Mrs. Dale Sedore) River-sview, Nancy Woolham of Georgetown and Robert of RR2 Brampton also by 19 grandchildren, 6 brothers and 3 sisters.

Mrs. Grassy will not only be missed by her family but also by her neighbours and friends in the village.

Get well wishes are extended to Mr. Bob Crawford, Sr. who was a patient in Toronto General Hospital. Also to Mrs. Marion Reed who is a patient in Toronto General Hospital, Willard Laidlaw who is a patient in Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton who was a patient in Georgetown & District Hospital.
