PETER O'HANLON
New face

Peter O'Hanlon is a very welcome addition to the cast of "The Bungalows" Peter will portray Major Pomfret Jones and Wrigglesworth Auditorium is presently rehearsing the sounds of his fine bass voice during our busy rehearsal schedule as the Georgetown Little Theatre prepares for an opening performance on Dec. 8.

Mr. O'Hanlon will be a familiar face to many Georgetown residents who travel to Brampton to enjoy live theatre. He's starred with Brampton Musical Society in "South Pacific" as Emile de Becque, a Musical Review "Happiness Is..." He portrayed Jud in "Oklahoma," General Fairfax in "Little Mary Sunshine," and was Sir John in "For Me and My Girl."

The formation of the Abbey Players Ltd. gave Peter a chance to add his talents to Gilbert and Sullivan productions of "The Mikado" where he sang the lead role and also portrayed the Sgt. of Police in "The Pirates of Penzance." This is an impressive record for his Ontario performance, but it would be remiss not to mention that prior to his move to Ontario, Peter performed in Montreal.
