Dear David:
I hope you have a very Merry Christmas. And be a good boy all year.

Dear Santa:
How are you and Mrs. Santa and Rudolph. My sister and I have been very good. I would like Baby that away and Mr. Mouth a house coat and a tiny Andy and Ragged Ann. Kelly would like a Kiss me baby, leotards, a story book, Get Off my back and slippers.

Merry Christmas
Love and Julie and Kelly

Dear Julie and Kelly:
Your letter is very nice. The drawing of me is a little big but then I wouldn't be Santa if I didn't have a roly-poly belly, would I? I am fine and so is Mrs. Claus and Rudolph. He is preparing for the trip Friday and is now having a nap. Please be good children and have a Merry Christmas.

Dear Santa:
How are you and Mrs. Claus?
We knew your elves have been busy making all the Christmas presents, so we hope they'll have a nice, long vacation after Christmas. Maybe for a week or two, before they have to start making next years presents. We hope your reindeer are all ready for the long ride and that Rudolph's nose is as bright and shiny as ever.
I would like Evel Knievel and some clay, like we have in school for Christmas. My little sister, Mengan, 2 1/2, would like a dolly.
Will you please leave some nice things under Angie Cooper's tree. She's my girlfriend and I love her.

Thank-you,
Jeremy Chaplin
age 5 1/2.

P.S. - My mom wrote this letter for me because I'm only in kindergarten.

Dear Jeremy:
My elves will have a nice vacation before they start making next year's Christmas presents for boys and girls; and Rudolph's nose is all set to help Santa find his way Christmas Eve. I won't forget you or your sister and I'm sure Angel will find some nice pleasant gifts under her tree, too. From me and Mrs. Claus: Have a very Merry Christmas.

P.S. That's a very fine drawing. Thank you.

Dear Santa:
I am 6. My daddy, would like a CB radio and a screen door for the back door he has been very good and I think he deserves something nice for Christmas and mom would like some brown pants.

Yours truly from Tim O. and Tricia.

Dear Tricia:
Thank you for the nice letter. It's very good of you to write for your daddy, he was a little boy once and I can remember bringing him presents each Christmas. I am glad that you say he's been good. Have a Merry Christmas.

Dear Santa:
Do you ever get tired of making toys for all my little children around the world. I hope you have a good holiday from school during Christmas and you are both good children. What with the busy schedule I have this week, I might be able to visit your school, but with the work of packing my sleigh and making sure all my reindeer are ready, and helping Mrs. Claus with the baking and last minute things around the house, I might not. You wouldn't mind would you? Santa has to make the big trip Friday evening, you know. Have a very, very, Merry Christmas.
