

TWO GDHS REBELS, Pete Fournier (applying the hold) and Dean Scallan (forced to endure the hold) tangle in a 106 lb. weight class bout in last Saturday's GDHS Rebels Invitational Wrestling Tournament.

Raiders close in on league leaders

The Georgetown Chrysler Raiders, of the OHA Intermediate "A" League, had a chance to climb to the top of the loop standings this past week, but a lack of players thwarted, for now, the Georgetowners climb to the top.

Last week the Raiders claimed an important four point win over arch-rival, Port Colborne Sailors, with a 6-3 decision but league doormats, Dunnville Mudcats, surprised the Georgetowners by tripping them up, 3-2 in overtime, last Thursday night in Dunnville. For Dunnville, the win over the Raiders was only their sixth of the season.

Last Tuesday night (January 11) the Raiders travelled to Port Colborne with but small hope, but returned home with visions of "Championship" dancing in their heads. The locals were only able to suit up 12 players, including goaltenders, Mario MacDonald and Greg Hooper and their lineup was further filled out by Georgetown Gemini Captain, Doug Barnes.

The meagre bench perhaps inspired the Raiders to better things as the Georgetowners thoroughly dominated two periods of play to claim the win. The score was decked out 1-1, at the end of the first period, as Ray Evans, on an unassisted effort, scored for the Raiders and Fraser Rice, replied for Port Colborne.

The second period provided the difference, however as the Raiders got goals from Doug Tate, Doug Barnes (the Junior "B" player) and Bob Fotheringham, while Port managed but one marker, off the stick of Steve Siba, to run the count to 4-2 Georgetown, after 40 minutes of play.

In the third frame, when the Raiders could have been faltering, they came up with a superb second effort as Doug Barnes, with his second goal of the game and Steve Blundy, sailed away the win. Port got one meagre reply from Mike Latinovich.

TUESDAY'S LINEUP
Mario MacDonald, Boyce, Glen Robinson, Ray Evans, Steve Blundy, Bob Fotheringham, John Longstreet, Art Webster, Doug Tate Neil Cotton, Doug Barnes and Greg Hooper.

The Tuesday night, all-important win over Port Colborne, should have buoyed the Raiders when they took on Dunnville on Thursday night. However, the lineup was still paper thin and the Mudcats came up with one of the best games of the season to triumph 3-2.

The two teams battled to a 1-1 tie after 20 minutes of play. The sandwich frame was scoreless and the teams traded third period goals to run the count to 2-2, at the end of regulation time. At the 2:34 mark of the overtime period, Howie Doon scored for Dunnville, to seal the Mudcat win. Mike Quinn and Larry Comberford also scored for Dunnville.

For the Raiders, Bob Elinetsky, on a pass from Doug Tate and Neil Cotton, converting passes from Tom Daley and Steve Blundy, Glen Robinson Tom Daley and Greg Hooper.

The Raiders can further enhance their first place hopes this week, as they see action, twice. On Wednesday (tonight) the Raiders travel to Dundas, while this Friday night they play host to Dunnville Mudcats.

Blue Angels topple Red Devils

The Blue Angels, paced by a 10 point game from Brenda Atkinson, defeated the Red Devils, 53-36 in Ladies Basketball action last week. Diane Dunbar hit for seven points for the winners, while Mary Kelly and Pat Mashinter each netted six points.

For the Red Devils, Bonnie Brunton and Sandy Lewis each hooped six points, with Jan Campbell and Ruth Melody adding four points apiece. Norma Chadwick had an outstanding rebounding game for the Red Devils.

Payment approved
Finance and administration committee has recommended council approve the payment of $599.86 for a minor hockey coaching clinic held Nov. 10, 1976.

Recreation director Glen Gray told the committee Monday that the recreation department would have had to do the work but for the Georgetown and District Minor Hockey Association.

Mayor Tom Hill asked why the item was to be included in the 1977 budget when the event was held in 1976. He was told that it was for the 1976-77 hockey season. The mayor suggested that the coaches clinic be budgeted for in the same year it is held and that the 1977 budget therefore include enough to pay last year's clinic and this year's as well.

Super seeks transfer

John Graham, the board of education's superintendent of special services, has requested a transfer from his present position to that of area superintendent effective July 1, 1977.

The board approved the move Thursday following remarks from Emerson Lavender, director of education, who noted that in the event no area superintendent positions are available, Mr. Graham be given a term appointment as a liaison assistant to the new superintendent of special services. Mr. Graham wants a career change.

GDHS Wrestling Rebels top home Invitational

By BRENT COLLIER
On January 15th, the Georgetown Wrestling Rebels hosted their 8th Annual Invitational Wrestling tournament. Competing were the strongest teams in Ontario, including Grey Highlands, Strathroy, Newton Brooke, Guelph, J.F. Ross, Nelson, White Oaks, Thorold, Smiths Falls, Winston Churchill (Toronto), Colonel By (Ottawa), Erinville, Fergus and Georgetown. The resulting competition was fierce, almost a preview of OSFAA.

Most of the Rebels wrestled well, but in some cases improved to be too much. As a team, the squad pulled together and aimed for the team championship. All Georgetown wrestlers had vocal support from their team mates. This team spirit is much admired by coaches of other teams, who regularly comment on it.

Georgetown so far having never lost the team championship. Their Invitational won again with 59 points.

Ex-GDHS Rebel Coach, Lew Martin's team from Smith Falls was second with 45 points. Winston Churchill placed third with 42 points, Colonel By was fourth with 38, Erinville fifth with 33, and Fergus sixth with 31.

dominated and easily took first place. Frank Lenski followed in 6th place.

At 106 lbs. Pete Fournier defeated all takers to place first. O'Connor from Churchill was destroyed by Fournier in his final match. Dean Scallan placed 4th at 106 lbs. Followed by Guy Lancaster, 8th and Keough in 13th.

Brian Pendergast and Joe Ibbuki both wrestled well at 115 lbs. placing 3rd and 6th. George Gonowski, a Canadian champion won this weight class.

With Bill Fournier out of action, Kevin Brown and Todd Bradley were called into action at 123 lbs. Bradley placed 14th, and Brown 15th.

Veteran Ted Phillips returned to the line up at 130 lbs. to place 5th. Phil Milne and Steve Robbins also wrestled in this Division, placing 7th and 8th respectively.

At 136 lbs. John Wright placed 8th. John has been injured most of this year.

At 141 lbs. Steve Cropper wrestled well to capture 4th in a tough weight class. Jeff Skingley and Paul Beer followed in 10th and 13th places.

Dave Taggart placed a disappointing 11th at 148 lbs. Brent Collier, also with a bad day, and placed 7th.

Steve Turner placed 2nd at 194 lbs. The competition was stiff and Steve wrestled well.

The entire team celebrated their victory, and proudly accepted the trophy.

The next action will be in Waterloo this weekend.

Ontario Outdoors Winter activities abound in area

By BOB OLLIVIER
A favourite project of mine in the winter months is catching up on the reading I have missed during the summer months. This is not to say that I stay in and do nothing but read all winter. Quite the contrary, I love to get out and snow-shoe or ice fish as well as the many other activities that are available to the outdoors person during the cold months. I am always ready to comment favourably on the fine books put out by DBI BOOKS INC. and the two latest are no exception.

GUNS ILLUSTRATED 1977 is a very complete book within its terms of reference. Each article is complete and not left hanging as with some other books I have read, but this one leaves nothing. There is even a chapter on the collecting of BELT BUCKLES and this is getting more prevalent each year, and I am a proponent of the hobby. One item that interests me is the one on a "new" style of taxidermy. It involves the FREEZE DRYING of the specimen and is well worth reading.

The other book by DBI INC. is the second edition of BACKPACKERS DIGEST. What can I say but once again a very complete book. If you wish to take up backpacking then all the information you need is within its pages. From equipment, to dress, to emergency procedures, it is all within the pages of BACKPACKERS DIGEST.

I have mentioned the Terra Cotta Conservation Area program put on by the Credit Valley Conservation Authority, called "COME ALONG". Weather permitting, the program is every Sunday afternoon from 10 am to 4 pm.

SLEIGH RIDES, SKATING, CROSS COUNTRY SKIING AND SNOWSHOEING as well as a bonfire to warm yourself is all there for the family to enjoy. Snowshoes are provided (with a deposit) and hot food and drink is available at the pavilion. Definitely worth the effort.

Grab Shoes of 51 ARDELT AVE. KITCHENER N2G 4H4 has a series of booklets on hiking and these may be obtained at no charge. They are very informative and include equipment for the trail, weather forecasting and foot care among others.

Why not use the winter months to build a smoker for your fish???? Send a stamped, self addressed envelope to ONTARIO OUTDOORS, 25 CAROLE STREET, GEORGETOWN L7G 3X5 and I will send you the plans for one, along with other pertinent information. As ANNE MURRAY says in her song "When its hard to unravel the grass from the gravel, its time to be moving to the North Country."

To me that is spring time but until that season comes I am going to enjoy, ONTARIO OUTDOORS.

Several teams from North Halton participated in competitions out of the club last week.

Our business Girls team of Karin Henderson, Jean Chappel, Barb Skinner and Tonia Treahy competed in Trophy playdowns at Chinguacousy. They won one game and lost two to be eliminated from further play. In Junior Tankard play Dave Henderson and his team of Paul McCracken, Greig Geofreda and Dave Porter lost

North Halton curlers in Halton-Peel 'spiel

By Bill and Peggy Treahy
A close game to Dixie on Sunday to be eliminated from the competition.

The annual Halton-Peel Bunspiel began Saturday at many clubs in the area. Several teams from North Halton won both their games Saturday to remain in the first event. These teams are: Steve McDermot, Frank Grant, Harvey Chappel and Jim Lusby. Congratulations.

This weekend is the date of the club's winter carnival. There'll be skating, tobogganing, skiing with hot chili and mulled wine around a bonfire. Bring the whole family for fun in the snow.

District playdowns for Seagram's Mixed will also be taking place at North Halton this weekend. Teams from all clubs in the area will be competing with the first game starting at one o'clock Friday afternoon.

Our team of Warren Brooke, Shirley McDermot, Steve McDermot and Lynn Gerrard play their first game at 4:30 p.m. Friday. Come on out to support your team and to see some good curling, too.
