

GDHS REBEL WRESTLER, BILL DAVIS (left) slips a hold during last Wednesday's Peel-Halton Championships. Bill placed second in his weight class, but the Rebels repeated as Peel-Halton Champions. They will defend their OFSSAA championship this Saturday in St. Catharines.

Archer rink wins Mackenzie Spiel

BY PEGGY & BILL TREAHY

Our first job this week is to congratulate Warren Brooke and his rink of Shirley McDermot, Steve McDermot and Lynn Gerrard on their fine showing in the Ontario finals of the O.C.A. Seagram's Mixed Competition at Lindsay last weekend. They lost their first game to George Kilmer of St. Catharines, then they won the next five games creating a 4 way tie for first place. The first time this happened in the history of this competition.

The four finalists were Warren Brooke, George Kilmer Waite of St. Thomas and Woods of the Royal Canadians. Wood's rink was the eventual winner. Warren's rink were defeated by Waite and so were eliminated from the competition. By the way, Lynn Gerrard made the national newspapers (Globe & Mail) as the only lady in the competition wearing a kilt.

The Georgetown Legion Branch 120 curling team of skip Harvey Chappell, Dunc Moneypanny, Gord Campbell, Pat Chamberlain were also curling last weekend, as representatives of their district. They were competing in the Provincial finals of the Legion Championships in Ottawa. Harvey and his rink won their preliminary games, and met a Trenton rink in the final which really must have been some game. An extra end was played and after the 11th end the score was 3-2 in favour of Trenton.

Both Warren and Harvey and their teams came so close to the Provincial crown, it is really tough to lose in the final game.

Within the club we have winners galore to announce this week. The ladies section completed the second draw. Commencing with the Tuesday afternoon league results were as follows: first, skip Gail Sparks, Joan Noxon, Frances Wild and Joan Thoms. In second place was skip Ethel Murdy, MacKenzie, Beth Anderson, Dorothy Rootes, and third was skip Peg Fischer, Ann Timmins, Greta Lamb, Lorrie Jamer.

The top position in the Thursday afternoon league was won by skip Vivian Kruger with Bobbie Phillips, Dorie Cox, Elsie Montgomery. Second was skip Dot Hamilton, Agnes Park, Ellen Burns, Alice Frazer. In third spot was skip Betty Hull, Joan Noxon, Sherill Collins, Frances Wild.

Wednesday evenings, in this second draw, the Business Girls' league were competing for the Barber Trophy. The winner was skip Shirley McDermot, Beth Anderson, Janet McKeeman, Sandra Capling. In second place was skip Jean Chappel, Ev Patterson, Norma Carlisle, Fran Tymchyshen.

The ladies section participated in the Mackenzie Trophy Bonselpiel last Saturday and as usual Louise Frankow came up with some very unique decorations which had obviously taken hours to prepare. Winners on the first draw were, in first place, skip Helen Archer, June Evans, Marie Emma Howlett, Marg Teetzal. Second was skip Joan Mustard, Jean Brander, Dymese Griffiths, Sandra Capling and third was skip Maddie Howat, Greta Lamb, Gert McGee, Sheila Breen.

Second draw results were, first, skip Vivian Kruger, Joan Noxon, June Russell, Lorrie Jamer. Second place, skip Peg Fischer, Marj Allen, Peggy Cumming, Pat Ball. Third was skip Bobbie Phillips, Agnes Park, Cathy Peregoy, Elsie Montgomery. The rink with the highest points and winner of the trophy was skip Helen Archer and her team. The trophy was presented by Jean MacKenzie.

Also on Saturday one of our rinks gained honors at Milton when skip Karin Henderson led her team of Jean Chappel, Barb Skinner and Sally Skelton to victory in this Business Girls' Bonselpiel.

Sunday was a busy day for Cynthia Partridge when she ran the Tootsie Roll Trophy Bonselpiel for the Junior Curlers. Results of the first draw were, in first place, skip Dave Porter, Bill Carson, Martin Hartford, Karen Wilson. Second was skip Hal Porter, Philip Wild, Wendy Tancoco, Robert Cumming. High 1 Game skip Ted Shannon, Jo-Anne Shannon, Mark Barnet.

First on the second draw was skip Brad Kruger, Tracie Treahy, Craig Barnet, Donna Robinson. Second was skip Rodd Peregoy, Val Phillips, Linda Phillips, Donna Jewell. High one game winner was skip Daryl Street, Jim Bishop, Carol Dean, Diane Jewell. Winner of the trophy was Dave Porter and his rink. The trophy was presented by Alan Dean.

On behalf of the juniors, Cynthia would like to express special thanks to Alan Dean, President of Broco Sales, the Canadian Sales Agents for Tootsie Roll of Canada Ltd. Alan was directly responsible for getting the Tootsie Roll sponsorship for this spiel and for the generous donation of Tootsie Rolls as a draw prize which was won by Daryl Street.

The men are currently involved in club playdowns to determine a club representative team to enter the O.C.A. Intermediate Championships, we should have the result of this double knockout competition for next weeks column. We wish a speedy recovery to Rick Eastwood who was taken ill last Friday and is in hospital in Toronto. See you on the ice.

JUNIOR CURLERS IN COMPETITION

Junior Rebel tourney on this weekend

The Second Annual Rebel Junior Basketball Invitational Tournament takes place this Saturday at the GDHS gymnasium. Junior Rebel Coach, Morley "Moe" Leeking, is extremely pleased with the calibre of the teams that will be competing.

Action gets under way at 8:00 a.m., with the Rebels going against Toronto Martingrove. At 9:30 a.m., Queen Elizabeth Park High School, of Oakville, takes on Dundas Secondary; in the 11:00 a.m. game, Henry Carr goes against Grimsby and in the final preliminary game, slated for 12:30 p.m., Markham takes on London Oak Ridges.

Semifinals in both the Consolation and Championship series are scheduled to get under way at 2:00 and 3:00 p.m. The Consolation Championship game is slated for a 5:30 p.m. start, with the Championship match scheduled to get under way at 7:00 p.m.

Admission prices (all day tickets) are 50 cents for students and children and $1.00 for adults.

Coach Leeking expressed his gratitude to Beaver Foods and Kirby Bus Lines for donating the tournament prizes.

GDHS wrestling Rebs repeat at Peel-Halton

BY BRENT COLLIER

When a team desires a championship, they can accomplish anything. Coaches Ray Smith and Bob McKay knew this, as they watched their Wrestling Rebels easily defend their Halton Peel title. "The kids worked hard, and when you work hard, you can only win," Coach Smith stated.

After qualifying 16 wrestlers, the Rebs received had news - Three veterans, Brent Collier, Steve Cropper and Frank Lenksi were forced to default competition due to previous injuries. This saddened the other athletes, who realized the work the three did to get where they are.

Nevertheless, the others trained six straight days to prepare for only twenty minutes of actual wrestling. When the big day came, the wrestlers were ready, and did their job. Coach Bob McKay was overjoyed, saying, "The boys wrestled as well as they could, and we won because we had the best team. Erindale, Bramalea and White Oaks are all veteran squads. Our average age is 15, where on other teams it is 18. The cohesion on our team makes us all veterans, and we help each other win."

The highlight of the day was the match between Joey Iuku and Joe Schner of Nelson. Schner was second in Ontario last year, and Iuku destroyed him, wrestling the best match of his still young career.

Steve Turner met stiff opponents, but remained cool and employed his counters to pin all corners. Steve won at 178 lbs.

Jerry Paul, at 83 lbs., won the qualifying match, but will not wrestle at OFSSA, since there is no championship at that weight. At 99 lbs., Frank Miedzinski defeated Bill Davis for the first time in win. Both will compete at OFSSA.

Rick Rogers went unchallenged for the day, pinning all opponents. At 106 lbs., Peter Fournier wrestled well to place first, ahead of Joey Iuku.

Bill Fournier and Brian Bendogast placed one and two at 115 lbs. Ted Phillips, in a tough weight class, placed second at 123 lbs.

Unfortunately some members did not qualify to continue. Dave Allen at 83, and Jeff Skingley at 141, placed third and fourth respectively. Phil Milne, at 123 lbs., placed sixth.

The Rebels would like to thank the students for their support. However, they had hoped the onlookers would make some noise. Silence filled the gym all day.

Georgetown placed first as a team with 90 points. Erindale was second with 63 and White Oaks third with 44.

Thanks are extended to Lynn Cartwright, Wendy Outler, Suzanne De Groat, Heather

Smith and Don Farkas, who helped to run the competition.

The nine qualifiers will now be training for the Ontario Championships. The finals will be in St. Catharines at Brock University on Saturday, February 27th. The team would appreciate any support.

Second place at stake in Industrial league

Only one Sunday of play remains in the Georgetown Industrial Hockey League, but regular season but second place hinges on the game results of this coming Sunday. Sandhill is holding onto second place, a mere point ahead of Thompson's Construction, while fourth place, Guelph-Clair Sunoco, are sitting just two points behind Sandhill.

Thompson's have perhaps the toughest row to hoe, in the hopes of latching on to the number two spot, as they face the front-running Norval Alouettes this Sunday. This should be the top match of the final day of regular season play and it is slated to get under way at 8:15 a.m. at the Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena.

The Al Pilutti Minor Atoms journeyed to New York State for a pair of exhibition games over the weekend, but perhaps the long car trip was too much for the lads as they played below their capabilities and could only manage a tie in their two outings.

In the first game, the Georgetowners, lost 3-2 to Southtown, New York. The Georgetowners outshot their opponents, 18-8, but just could not capitalize on their scoring opportunities. Southtown led, 1-0 after the first period of play and although the teams traded goals in the second, Southtown scored what proved to be the winner with just a half minute left in the period.

David Monyague and Wayne Morrow scored for Georgetown, with Mike O'Brien earning an assist.

Georgetown bops Acton

A total team effort up front, super goaltending and four goals in the first period, saw the Neilson's Crispy Crunchers Georgetown's midget 4 town team, bounce the Acton midget 4 towners 6-1 in game one of their semi-final series of the 4 Town Tournament.

Jamie Hansen potted a pair of goals for the Crunchers, Scott Wilson, Bill Kent, Joe Spitzer and Reid added a goal apiece with assists from Ross Jeffries, Gary Johnston, Jeff Richardson, and Wilson. Acton's lone goal was scored by Williams from Johnston. Steve Dodge was the hot goalie for the Crunchers, who frustrated the Acton shooters time and time again.

Game two, in this 1v game

Rebelettes triumph

The GDHS Senior Rebelettes volleyball team won their second consecutive Rebelette Invitational Volleyball Tournament on the weekend as they beat Queen Elizabeth Park High School of Oakville, three games to one in the Final match (15-2, 15-6, 13-15 and 15-1) to claim the championship laurels.

The tournament didn't turn out as well as had been expected, competition-wise as four classy Peel teams pulled out as a result of the Peel Teachers decision to adopt a work-to-rule policy.
