WRIGHT—In loving memory of my dear wife Dorothy who passed away March 2, 1976. Time changes many things, But Love and Memory ever cling. Your Dear Kind Face to see, Your loving smile, your welcome voice, That meant so much to me, No one knows the silent heartache. Only those who have such can tell Of the grief that is borne in silence. For the one that I loved so well. Memories are Life's greatest treasures. Sadly missed and longingly remembered. Your Husband Denny

WRIGHT, Dorothy. In loving memory of our Mother, who passed away March 2, 1976. And death shall have no dominion. Dead men naked they shall be one. With the man in the wind and the west moon, When their bones are picked clean and clean bones gone, They shall have stars at elbow and foot. Though they go mad they shall be sane, Though they sink through the sea they shall rise again, Though lovers be lost love shall not, And death shall have no dominion. Dennis and Patti.

Ballinafad News

By WINIFRED SMITH
Herald correspondent

The weather over the weekend was the topic of conversation. First dense fog, school buses did not run on Thursday of last week. It was Saturday's late freezing rain storm, which caused the most trouble.

The back roads were very icy and treacherous. Several motorists needed help on the town-line and eighth line corner on Sunday morning. Church services at Ballinafad Church were cancelled.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jameson entertained a few friends on Saturday evening. They had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell from Ancaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Murley Shortill returned home on Sunday after an enjoyable holiday in Hawaii. Glad to be able to report that Richard Shortill is back at work after being laid up for sometime with Plebitis in his arm. We are happy also to report that his mother, Mrs. Beta Shortill was able to leave hospital on Saturday. Granddaughter Karen Shortill is looking after her while she is recuperating.

Mrs. Pat Laughnan and Mrs. Linda O'Connor accompanied their little daughters, Kelly and Susan (respectively) to the Mother and Daughter Browne banquet at Georgetown last week.
