

WE ARE NUMBER

FOR THE SECOND YEAR IN A ROW

OWNA President Gerry Barker presents the award for best news and features to Herald editor Bob Rutter at a special awards dinner during the OWNA annual convention in Toronto

The Herald again captures the Ontario Weekly Newspaper Association award for "best news and features" in its circulation class of 10,001 to 16,000.

THAT MEANS A LOT TO OUR READERS!

It means that we are succeeding in providing you with the Best News Coverage and reporting of Local Events which affect our community in an objective concise and factual manner

THAT MEANS A LOT TO OUR ADVERTISERS!

Because readership and circulation is now the LARGEST in our 112 year history and they are receiving FULL VALUE for their advertising dollar

WE ARE SECOND TO NONE IN HALTON HILLS!
