DAY OF CHAMPIONS

SEMIFINALS

BANTAM DIVISION

Georgetown Chrysler 5
Stevenson's Mens Wear 2

The Chryslers advanced to the Championship game in relatively easy fashion by notching this win. Mike Jones had a goal and an assist to lead the Chrysler attack, single markers went to Shawn Zuber, Grant Nairn, Peter McKinnon and Vernon Coles. Jamie Champ and Ernie Haller scored for Stevenson's.

Elk's Lodge 2 - Halton Auto Wreckers 1

Mike Roberts was the main man for the winners as he counted both Elk's goals on unassisted efforts. Kevin Hughes, from Brady Bludd, scored for the Wreckers.

TYKE DIVISION

Optimists Blues 1 - Golds 0

The Optimists gained nothing but pride in this win as the championship opponents had already been decided. Mark Lorio, on a pass from Jason Arnold scored the winning goal, John Stefan registered the shutout.

Tack and Tog Greens 2

Knights of Columbus Reds 2

These were the teams slated to meet in the championship final, but in this instance, the Greens came out on top. John Lorio had a splendid performance, picking up the hat-trick. Richard Mathews and Grant Kelly each earned two assists for the Greens. Wayne Snow and Patrick McCarthy scored for the Reds.

NOVICE DIVISION

Armstrong Insurance 4 - Armbro Transport 2

Armbro qualified for the Finals but not because of lack of effort on the part of Armstrong. They were down 5-2 at one point in the two game total goal semifinal and rallied to just be edged by a single goal. In this game, Brent Page scored twice for Armstrong, with Jamie McCallan and Guy Hiltick adding singles. Brian Doherty and Scott Campbell scored for Armbro.

Halton Hills Catering 5 - Lions Club 4

In a marathon 54 minute game, that saw both squads play tremendous hockey, the Catering crew came out on top. Robert Klavkals and Ken McDermott each had a pair for the winners, with Jamie Warnock collecting a single marker. Mike Tyler scored twice and had an assist for the Lions, Jeff McNiven scored once and had an assist, while John Watts had a single marker.

GIRLS DIVISION

IOF 3 - Adams Photo 0

Michelle Miehm scored twice for the winners, with Jenny Milne collecting a single marker. Donna Sedore was in nets for the shutout.

Grand Valley Swingers 6
Industrial Queens 1

Grand Valley had an experienced club that just proved too strong for the Georgetowners. Solomon and Grant each notched a pair for the winners, with Steele and Reih-nayer adding singles. Dena Kent, on a pass from Janet Garton scored for Georgetown.

tego marksmen. Don Poirier and Brian King scored for Masson Motors.

BANTAM DIVISION

Elk's Lodge 3 - Georgetown Chrysler 2

Excellent game, with Elk's holding out for the win. Mike Roberts scored twice for the winners, with Brian Kalwies notching a single. Elk's assists were earned by James Ripley, Peter Allen, Grant Marshall and Mike Hartley. Kevin Phillips scored both Chrysler goals, Vernon Coles and Shawn Zuber collected assists.

ATOM DIVISION

Varian Associates 2 - Garbutt Plumbing 0

Varian Associates finished in second place behind Garbutt in league play, but came up big when the chips were down. Rod Wilson, in nets for Varian and Peter McCracken, between the pipes for Garbutt both played excellent games. Garbutt pulled their goaler with less than a minute to play, but to no avail. Fred Goldsmith, on a pass from Doug Sladdon scored the first Varian goal, while Tim Panabaker, on a pass from Howard McCarthy scored the insurance marker.

NOVICE DIVISION

Halton Hills Catering 6 - Armbro Transport 1

The semifinal marathon only served to push the Catering crew on to better things as they simply overwhelmed Armbro. A super effort by Chris Pearson in nets and Mike Teetzel on defence. However, excellent performances by all players. For Coach Curtis, this marked his second consecutive championship. Robert Klavkals had three goals for the winners, while singles went to Jeff Curtis, Ken McDermott and Craig Nicolucci. Brad Klavkals earned three assists for the Caterers, while Ken McDermott and Michael Hunter also picked up assists. Brian Doherty, with an unassisted effort, scored the lone Armbro goal.

TYKE DIVISION

Tack and Tog Greens 1

Speed, playmaking and solid bodychecking highlighted this win for the Reds. All players on both teams, however, deserve credit for excellent efforts. Patrick McCarthy and Wayne Snow scored for the Reds, with David Ciglen earning an assist. John Lorio, on an unassisted effort, replied for the Greens.

GIRLS JUNIOR DIVISION

Adams were more in the game than the score would indicate, but just couldn't find the scoring touch. Both teams played heads up crisp hockey, with only one penalty being assessed. Denean Jones paced the winners attack, by scoring twice. Jenny Milne, Sharon Anderson and Michelle Miehm fired singles. Assists were earned by Milne, Miehm, Leanne Grashy, Sally Frost and Bonnie Kennedy. Dianne Taylor, on a pass from Lisa Allen, scored the lone Adams goal.

PEEWEE DIVISION

North Halton Motors 8 - Dockeray Plumbing 4

North Halton were just too strong for the Dockeray crew. Garry Lockwood had a hat-trick for the winners and collected two assists. Brian McQueen had two goals and collected an assist, while single counters were netted by Ray Wallace, Rod Cook and Andy Carter. For Dockeray, Mike Wroblewski scored twice, while Bruce Kentner and John Sellar fired singles.

CHAMPIONSHIP

North Halton Motors 3 - Standard Products 0

For the second year in a row, Standard Products were forced to settle for the runner-up spot. The game was very close until the third period, when two North Halton markers sealed away the win. Garry Lockwood scored twice for North Halton, with Rod Cook adding a single. David Leslie collected the shutout.

JUVENILE DIVISION

Neilson's (HMT) 4 - Exchange House 1

Neilson's controlled this final from the opening faceoff. They led 3-0, before Exchange House hit the scoresheet. Joe Spitzer had a pair for the winners, with Scott Wilson and Jim Taggart hitting for single counters. Bill Kent had a pair of assists, while Curt Brownlee, Edgar Thatcher and Gary Johnston each collected an assist. Russ Clark, on a pass from Jim Taylor, scored for Exchange House.

MIDGET DIVISION

Montego Const. (HMT) 3 - Masson Motors 2

This game was rated as one of the best games all season. The score was tied at 2-2 after regulation time and it took three overtime periods before a winner was decided, as Terry Cull took a pass from John Thorpe that decided the issue. Rob Montague and Craig McLaughlin were the other Mon-
