

Harrison pupils camp out

The most effective way to teach a child is to rouse his curiosity then let him find his own answers with a gentle nudge in the appropriate direction from his instructors.

Following this theory three teachers from Harrison public school and one from Georgetown high school spent two days camping out with 42 pupils aged 9 to 12 at David Shrubsole's farm on the Sixth Line.

Three areas of outdoor study kept the youngsters busy. Mr. Rumsey from Georgetown high school taught them about both plant and animal life to be found in and around pools.

A tour of Limehouse taught the students something about the history of the area including the lime kilns and the caves.

All the bad men aren't on television after all, they discovered when they were told about the horse thieves and counterfeiters who once had a hideout near Waterfalls playground on the Sixth Line near Limehouse. Mr. Shrubsole was their guide on this part of the trip.

Bob Baird took the group for hikes along two parts of the Bruce Trail while Margaret Megele and parent volunteer Mrs. Levitt, took care of the empty stomachs, assorted blisters and such like ailments.

Besides the lessons which the youngsters knew they were learning they picked up handy tips on how to get along out of doors, how to erect tents, and how to be co-operative, thoughtful citizens who don't damage our environment.

By the look on their faces as they broke up the camp on Friday evening it was easy to see that this is the type of education that suits them. It suits their teachers, too, they said.

Limehouse news

The W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. Patterson on Wednesday evening with nine present. The president, Mrs. Roughley, opened by reading "Little Things."

Scripture was read by Miss Brigham and all had interesting current events. Text work music and roll call were answered in verses of Scripture.

Following text word music, Mrs. Crighan developed her study with that as a theme. She said music is a language named for Muse, goddess of the Arts in the late Ninth Century. It was spelled Musik in the old hymn books. She mentioned some composers of well known classical music.

After the meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction, Mrs. Patterson served a tasty lunch of cake, strawberries and ice cream.

Mrs. Robert Roughley of London spent last week with Mrs. J. Roughley and Miss Brigham.

Four local ladies enjoyed a bus trip arranged by Hanockburn Women's Institute to the Elmira area on Monday. Two films of the history and culture of the Mennonites and a good roast beef dinner were held at the Elmira Mennonite Church. Then an old order Mennonite took them on a conducted tour northward several miles among the well kept farms.

Afterward they ended an enlightening and enjoyable day browsing in Bronx's Olde Town Village Co. Ltd., a large market and store.

Communion service will be held at 9:30 a.m., June 19 at Limehouse Presbyterian Church.

We regret to hear that Joe Scott is suffering a broken jaw, the result of a collision while playing baseball.

11 Cubs attend Cuboree

By MRS. HANNAH
The District Cuboree was held last Saturday and there were 11 Cubs attending from Limehouse.

Over 100 Cubs met at Zellers in Georgetown along with their leaders and took 2 buses to Doon Pioneer Village near Kitchener.

The day was spent touring the village in groups of eight, meeting at lunchtime to eat together. Everyone took a lunch but were treated to a drink and popsicle. Badges were given to everyone and pennants to all the boys.

Roberto Ruggiero was invested last week and his father was present to see the ceremony. Roberto has been presented with his interpreter badge in the Italian language; Mike Hannah the artist badge; Ian Brown the tawny star; cyclist badge and toymake badge.
