Part of the 4,000 people who attended the 30th annual Hornby Garden Party watch a magic show as part of the talent show held at dusk Saturday.

Industrial league suspension levied

As a result of unorderly conduct during a game played June 5, Bob Fendley of the Niner's Sports Outfitters has been suspended for the balance of the season and the play-offs. The decision to suspend Fendley was made at a recent meeting of the Georgetown Industrial Football League, when member clubs unanimously endorsed President Bryan Lewis' ruling to suspend Fendley. The ruling came about after Fendley's attack on an umpire, abuse of an umpire and profanity. The Niner's have also lost another player, but only for one game. George Sheppard threatened an umpire during a game played July 13, and will play the bench during the Niner's next game.

Play-off format was discussed at the meeting and finalized with teams in order of standings. Team one will play team eight, two against seven, three versus six and four will challenge five.

There will be a first round (quarter finals) best two out of three, a second round (semi-finals) best three out of five and then the finals, best three out of five. All play-off games will be nine innings.

For the sake of the players, the league has requested the parks department to replace the snow fencing missing on diamond C which serves to notify sluggers when they've hit home runs to the Left Field Fence. During the meeting the league also mentioned their appreciation for the co-operation of the recreation and parks department in regard to the timing of the diamonds.

Upcoming events: Norval and Royal Trust are combining efforts to stage a 16 team Tournament on Saturday, August 20 and Sunday, August 21 with over $400.00 in prize money.

Competition is keen and well played ball is worth the effort of fans to come out for a night of softball.

Georgettes lose 2-1

Armstrong Georgettes suffered a tight loss to the Hillsburgh Seniors Wednesday night losing 2-1.

The only Georgette run was made by Maureen Gerth after she hit a triple in the third inning and was hit home by a single from Pat Walsh.

Contacting only for singles until the seventh inning when Colleen Sunnucks hit a triple. Dianne Marshall tried a sacrifice bunt to get Colleen in, but was unsuccessful.

Leading until the seventh, the Georgettes fell behind when Hillsburgh's Cathie Keeler and Patty Bayne managed one run each. The Georgettes picked up only two errors throughout the game, Hillsburgh made four.

The Georgettes played another game Monday night against Milton losing 10-5.

Slow until the fifth inning, the game picked up as the Georgettes managed three runs while Milton picked up seven, including a home run by Sue Britton.
