Sterling

The 1977 bride isn't so different, it seems, from her predecessors - the ones who married before women's lib swept the country.

According to a recent survey, more than 60 per cent of today's brides-to-be register their tableware choices at the bridal gift registry - and still want the beautiful things that brides have always cherished.

However, changed the concept of women's place in the home may be, the love of fine tableware seems as steadfast as ever. And one of the highlights of the pre-wedding period for any engaged girl is opening the lovely china, crystal and silver gifts which she receives.

CHERISHED GIFT

There's a particularly happy reception awaiting any gift of sterling. For solid silver's not only a lovely possession to be enjoyed for its rich, lustrous gleam and fine craftsmanship, but a treasure to be valued for its very real worth.

Sterling's a precious metal with intrinsic value and this value - high now - gives every indication of becoming higher in the future.

FUTURE HEIRLOOM

For the young couple, this means that owning sterling is quite a bit like having your cake and eating it, too. For while it's used and enjoyed, it's also an investment for the future, and will some day become a cherished heirloom to be passed on to the children.

Most brides, however, look at sterling with an eye toward the immediate, rather than the distant, future - entertaining friends and relatives, for instance, at those first dinner parties.
And nothing else conveys quite so well the special occasion atmosphere they want. That's why every gift of sterling, large or small is so appreciated at this time.

Packing tips keep clothes fresher on honeymoon trip

After the excitement of your wedding day, you'll be off for your honeymoon.
Whether it's a big trip or a small one, you'll save a lot of bother if you plan your packing carefully. Here are some hints:

Pack shoes, hair dryers, clocks, and other heavy things at the hinge side of your suitcase - they'll be on the bottom when you carry it, so they won't crush your clothes.

Pack firmly. Loosely-packed clothes will shift around in transit and wrinkle more easily.

Pack in sections and not in layers - sports wear together, evening wear together, lingerie together.
It's easier to get at things that way, and easier to repack firmly.

Hues highlighting housewares to ease chores and please decors

Color - bold, brilliant, beautiful color - has come out of the closet.

Vivid splashes of color have considerably brightened the decor of American homes during the past decade. The marriage of color and functionalism produced such offspring as avocado stoves and refrigerators, gold washing machines and peach telephones.

HIDDEN COLORS

If you're a bride who is furnishing and equipping a new home or apartment, you've probably noticed that bright colors have also penetrated such closet-bound appliances as irons, vacuum cleaners and floor scrubbers - items that are visible only when used for housekeeping chores.

And it looks as if this latest color trend is here to stay.
So says Louis Cheskin director of the Chicago-based Color Research Institute a 30-year-old organization that studies the psychological, physiological, chemical and physical aspects of color in homes and in industry.

BRIGHTER TRENDS

Cheskin, who was recently interviewed by Eureka Home Care Institute experts about the trend toward colorful appliances and other

Distribute weight evenly on both sides of your suitcase (pack one heavy article at either end of the hinge), and it will be easier to carry.

Fasten all buttons and zippers, then fold everything in thirds lengthwise - a lengthwise fold will come out naturally as you wear the garment.

Pack all liquids (shampoo, cosmetics) and aerosols in a separate carry-on case.

Take clothes that don't wrinkle easily.
Because you'll be trying to save as much space as possible, take clothes and accessories that you can mix and match.

photos

Some are grand and extraordinarily expensive.
Others are simple and modestly priced.

Whatever type of wedding you are planning, it deserves to be preserved in professional photographs. A bride must decide to economize on some things, but not on photographic coverage of this all-important occasion. For it is the photographs that will keep the day's events alive in years to come.

Kodack experts advise prospective brides to book a professional photographer as soon as the date is set.

Look at your photographers portfolio of other wedding photos he's made and consider different styles you'd like. Wedding portraits can be formal, dramatic and romantic with special photographic effects and props) or they can be informal, casual, even candid, if you prefer.

If you are planning a budget wedding, check the photographer's package prices. It is always best to have him photograph from start to finish for you'll never be able to recreate the event at a later date.

For a more complete set of wedding photographs, perhaps your relatives may wish to give you additional prints as wedding gifts.

Bright colors like these give a psychological boost to homemakers," he said.

"They make a vacuum cleaner more fun to use and loss of a strictly utilitarian thing." Which every new bride will no doubt appreciate.)
Because the impact of color usually affects the subconscious, most people are not aware that color can influence their moods and behavior, CRT's Cheskin pointed out.

IMPORTANCE OF COLOR

While most women are not going to tell you they buy something just because of the color - especially if it's a practical item like a vacuum cleaner," he said, "color does play an important part in the homemaker's buying decision."

So next time you're out shopping and you're tempted to buy a new appliance because of its brilliant color, don't dismiss the urge as
'IMPRACTICAL.'
