

Santa's mailbag

Dear Santa Claus:
I hope you are feeling fine. My friend Jenny has been out of school because she is sick. How are your elves doing? Any bad ones. I hope not. It is doing pretty good up here in Georgetown. There isn't very much snow. My brother Darren can't write very good and he is going to send you a note, so you might not be able to read it well. Any how he wants Operation - game. Is it cold up there? I would like a Farrah Fawcett beauty-salon. Have a good day Santa.
Bye-now
Love
Kristine Krafczek Age 8

Dear Kristine:
What an interesting letter you wrote me. Yes, it is very cold here. It will be cold in Georgetown before I get around to see you and you will probably have a lot of snow too. I wouldn't dare have bad elves here, Kristine. I'd never be ready in time for my big trip if they weren't all good, hard-working helpers. I'll remember what you and your brother want and I hope you enjoy your gifts.
Merry Christmas,
Santa

Dear Santa:
I have been very good this year and would like a new doll. I would also like bunk beds and a Holly Hobby oven or house. Thank you.

A very nicely written letter! I'll take your mother's word for it that you have been good boys and girls and I'll see what I can find to leave under your tree that will keep you busy and happy.

Dear Phillippe:
Mrs. Clause and I are fine. The reindeer are getting all set for their big trip. I am sure they will appreciate their snack when we reach your house. I bet you are hoping for some snow to go with that sleigh you ordered. Have a merry Christmas.
Your friend,
Santa

Dear Santa Claus:
I am 4 years old and I go to Kindergarten and I wish for Xmas to have a Tweety Bird and a Six Million Dollar Man and an FX racing car set, also a Mickey Mouse drum. I will be a good boy. I will leave you milk and a cookie and I am happy to have Santa Claus because I like him so much.
Love from

Dear Paul:
Is that Rudolph on the back of your letter? Mrs. Clause and the elves all say it sure looks like him. Did you learn to draw so nicely at kindergarten? Are you ready for Christmas morning? I hope so because I have something special just for you. Have a Merry Christmas. Ho! Ho! Ho!
Your friend,
Santa

Teachers Writes
On the first day of school, each first-grader arrived home with a note from their new teacher. It read: "Dear Parents: If you promise not to believe all your child says happens at school, I'll promise not to believe all he says happens at home."
