

SANTAS MAILBAG

Dear Santa,
I would like a table and chairs and some toys. I have been an angel for my Mum and Dad. I am 2 years old.

Love,
Trevor Knight,

Dear Santa
I am 7 years old. I have really been good the year around. My name is Andrew Crosby but some of my brothers think you are not true that is my brother John Crosby. I would really like two things that is a Micky Mouse watch and a remote control car.

By Andrew Crosby

that sends me out every Christmas is something that no one ever gets too old to enjoy. I hope you will have fun with the things I leave for you this year.

Merry Christmas,
Santa

Cutting Calories
If you're cutting calories in an attempt to lose weight, observe the times and situations in which you are likely to overeat. Reprogram yourself to take a walk, do exercises, meet a friend—or anything else but eat when those times pop up.

Salad Story
Salads continue to make up a good portion of the American diet. According to some specialists, the average American eats about 23.6 pounds of lettuce and 15.7 pounds of apples each year. Also eaten per person are 11.8 pounds of tomatoes, 9 pounds of cabbage and 7.2 pounds of carrots.

Dear Santa,
I would like Sesame Street and a record player, and some books. I am 3 years old.

Love,
Jeff

Dear Jeff,
It is nice to know that little people still have time for books. All sorts of fun things come on the pages of books as well as some very interesting pictures. I hope you will like the things you find under your tree this Christmas.

Your friend,
Santa
