Dear Santa Clause:
My name is Charlie and I am 7 years old so my daddy is writing this letter as I dictate. You know I have been a good boy most of the time and try to help others be happy. I have a little brother named Joe who you haven't met yet. He is a neat guy who would like some blocks and a "nerf mobile". I myself would like a new rifle, a candy cane and some neat games. Tell your elves to get it on. I will leave you a coke and some cookies that I will make myself. Gee Santa, can't wait for Christmas. Be good to mommy and daddy too please. God Bless You,
Charlie Whitlock,

Dear Jeffery,
There's no need to be so formal. No one has called me "sir" for such a long time except those polite air force pilots who usually escort me part of the way. Just between you and me, Jeffery, I wish they wouldn't because their jets are so slow. I have to slow down for them and they make my faithful team of reindeer a little nervous. You didn't say what your baby sister's name is and the book I keep with the names of all the children in it is in the elves' workshop. But don't worry, I won't forget to bring her something. Ho! Ho! Ho!

don't get to Detrex Boulevard until quite late. I'll make the tea myself. If I have time, I'll do the dishes, too, but only if I have time. Have a Merry Christmas, Michelle, and keep those Christmas letters coming.

Your friend,
Santa

Dear Charlie:
You're the kind of guy we like because like us you try and make others happy. Isn't that what life is all about? You're right I have not met your little brother Joe yet, but if he is anything like you I'm certainly looking forward to it. I told my elves to "get it on" a long time ago but I'll remind them just for you. We can't wait for Christmas either and we sure will be good to your mommy and daddy.

Dear Santa,
Please can you have a cup of tea and a cookie

Dear Michelle:
I'd love to have a cup of tea and a cookie with you. But on Christmas Eve I'm going to be very busy so I can't get the water on until I get there. You are asleep when I come, and I'm sure you will be because I

Dear Norman:
I am glad to hear you like both me and my suit. Some people say the suit doesn't look that good on me, but at the North Pole, you need a suit like this to survive. We'll do our best to get the presents to you. The reindeer and I will be looking forward to those five cookies and we all like your drawing. Keep being a good boy.
