

SANTAS MAILBAG

am too little to do it. Merry Christmas.
Derek Ellar,
5 Dawson Cres

Dear Derek:
I am so glad that you have sent your first letter to me. Even with your mommy's help sending letters to Santa is a good habit for children to have. I know that because you are only three, it might be better to let Jodi and Rhonda leave me a snack but maybe you could ask them if you could help. Perhaps you could arrange the cookies on the plate I am sure that you will be a very happy little boy on Christmas morning.

Your friend,
Santa

Dear Santa:
I am 8 years old and I would like you to bring me a C.B. for my bike and a Quick change machine. Please bring something nice for Lynne, Colleen and Ricky too.

I can tell that a little girl like you who likes magic so much really believes in Santa Claus. Don't you think there is something magic about Christmas? Be a good girl, Leanne and you will be very happy on Christmas morning.

Dear Santa Claus:
Merry Christmas to you and Mrs. Claus. My name is Trina. I'm 2 1/2 years old. I have a sister named Candi. She's 6 months. I would like some dishes and a dolly and my baby sister would like rattles and things to chew on cause she's getting teeth. I will leave a carrot for Rudolph and some cookies for you.

Dear Trina and Candi:
Merry Christmas to you too. Trina and Candi, I hope you've been good all year. Santa is working hard, getting all the toys ready for delivery on Christmas Eve. Rudolph can't wait to stop at your house, now that I told him you're leaving a carrot out for him. I'm looking forward to the cookies you're leaving out for me too. Ho! Ho! Ho!

Your friend,

Dear Santa,
Very soon it will be Christmas Day. I hope your elves are making lots of toys for the good little boys, girls for Christmas Day. I know you will have to go around the world. I wonder if you are going to eat the cookies, drink the glass of milk. I hope Rudolph is leading the gang too. I already know I was sitting on your lap to take a picture, and you gave me a candy-cane too. I am listing some of the boys, girls: CAROL, Cherry, Brian, Me, Stacey, Rodney, Mike, Tara, John.

Love,
Stacey

Dear Stacey:
You're right, Christmas Day is coming very fast, and the elves are working hard making lots and lots of toys for all the good boys and girls around the world. I try to sample everybody's snacks, but I always have to watch my weight until next Christmas Eve. I remember getting my picture taken with you and giving you the candy cane. I hope you liked it. I hope you'll like your presents as I liked your drawings. Merry Christmas, Stacey!
