

SANTAS MAILBAG

Dear Santa
Thank you for the toys last year. They aren't all broken. I'm trying to be good. So could you please bring me some more toys this year. I would like Batman car and a batman walkie-talkie, Spiderman and spiderman car and a electric typewriter and a electric toothbrush. Please bring mommy a cake decorator, so daddy and I can eat them. Love you Santa.
Kevin Moody,
65 Dayfoot Dr.
c/o Grandma Hill
P.S. I'm only 4 years old, so my mommy is helping me out.

Dear Kevin:
I'm very happy to hear that you've broken all the toys I brought you last year. Since you've been trying to be good, I'll be visiting your house on Christmas Eve for sure. I hope you take just as good care of this year's toys as you did of last year's. I hope you thanked your mommy for helping you with your letter. She did a very good job. I think we've done just as well with your presents, so I hope you like them. Merry Christmas, Kevin!
Your friends,
Santa

Dear Santa
My brother Ken and I hope you have a happy Christmas. I would like Baby Tenderlove, Nellie Love Note, my Children's Bible and an art kit. I hope you don't give my brother his rotten potatoe this year.
Love Cheryl Genoe

Dear Cheryl:
I am sure Mrs. Claus and the elves and the reindeer will all have a very happy Christmas at the North Pole. We are working hard, getting ready for Christmas Eve, but we are relooking forward to relaxing on Christmas Day, opening our presents and eating a big Christmas dinner. As for your brother, Ken - well, if he is a good boy this year, he'll get some presents instead of a rotten potatoe. Merry Christmas, Cheryl!
Your friend,
Santa

Dear Santa
My name is Karen I am 6 years old. I want an Easy bake oven, Stretch Armstrong, a dollie, I leave milk out for you.
Karen Randolph,
16 Stevens Cres.
Georgetown

Dear Karen:
I was very happy to get your letter. I'm very busy helping the elves get ready for Christmas Eve, but all of us here at the North Pole are looking forward to our own Christmas celebration on Christmas Day after we finish making and delivering all the presents. I hope you will like the ones we made for you. Merry Christmas, Karen!
Your friend,
Santa

Dear Santa:
Mommy is writing this letter because we can't write yet. My name is Andy at 21 Albert St. and I want the Load and Dump Station and the Fisher Price Garage. My brother wants a Sesame Street Club house and a toy Rudolph. My brother's name is Ernie John and he would like a red nose like Rudolph so he can see in the night. We will leave something for you to eat right beside the Christmas tree and we have been good boys and are 5 and 3 years old. Do you like cookies Santa?
Our Christmas tree is in the corner by the stairs and you can come down our chimney. There are lots of decorations on our tree. Do you like milk?
Your friends,
Andy and Ernie John
Pearce

Dear Andy and Ernie John:
I like milk and cookies very much, but I don't eat too many cookies, because that would be bad for my teeth. I am looking forward to enjoying the snack you are leaving me on Christmas Eve. I will know right where to find it. I don't think I can promise to give your brother Ernie John a red nose like Rudolph's because Rudolph's nose is very special. But if you've been good boys, and you say you have, I can promise you that you'll be getting some very nice presents on Christmas Eve. Merry Christmas, Andy and Ernie John!
Your friend,
Santa

Dear Santa
I made this for you. I tried the best on the work I could. I love you, Dear Santa,
Bye Santa
From Janet M

Dear Janet,
Thank you for two very well done pictures. I'm sure you tried your best because the colouring is quite neatly done. You didn't ask for any gifts but I won't forget you, you know.
Have a merry Christmas
Santa

Dear Santa
I want a radio clock, and autorace. I want C.T.R. I want junk yard and sorry and air hockey. Safari Hunt price is right. Give me.

From Chuck Peebles

Dear Chuck:
I was happy to get your Christmas list of presents. I can't tell you what I'll be bringing you for Christmas because then when you wake up on Christmas morning you won't have any wonderful surprises, will you? But if you've been good all year, and I'm sure you have been, then Santa will be sure to visit you on Christmas Eve to deliver some very nice presents. Merry Christmas, Chuck!
Your friend,
Santa

P.S. Tell the elfs I said Hello

Dear Patrick,
You certainly are a sports fan. I hope you have lots of fun with the gifts you find under your tree. It won't be long now before I come to visit you. Have a happy holiday.
Your friend,
Santa

Dear Santa Claus
I would like a football helmet.

Dear Santa
How do you and Mrs. Claus feel. Does the reindeer behave themselves and Does the elves help you alot.
What time do you and the elves go out and deliver the toys.
Dear Santa I will be leaving you a cookie and a glass of milk.
Thank you
Robert Lewis
15 Hyland Ave.
Georgetown, Ont.

Dear Robert,
Another neat printer in the Lewis house. The reindeer are very well behaved. I don't know how I'd ever be ready for Christmas if it wasn't for all the work my elves do for me. We don't go out until quite late, Robert, so don't wait up for us. We'll see you soon even if you don't see us.
Your friend,
Santa

Dear Santa
I want some clothes for my doll Rub-a-dub dolly. And some dishes, And the Wake Up Thumbelina Doll please.
P.S. I will leave some carrots for your reindeer. And I will also leave juice and cookies for you. Please bring some presents for Michael and Patti.
Love Colleen

Dear Colleen,
Of course I won't forget your brother and sister but I'm glad you remembered them too. It's nice to see little people who aren't selfish. I'm sure you will have lots of fun with the toys under your tree after my visit.
Have a Merry Christmas
Santa

TO Santa Claus
From: Teri
I love you Santa

Teri Korzack
183 Delrex

Dear Teri:
And Santa loves you, too. Thank you for all the hugs and kisses on the envelope. Is that me that you drew on the outside? Mrs. Claus and the elves all said it's a fine drawing. Have a Merry Christmas.
Your friend,
Santa

Dear Santa

Jenny 4 Pearl
Laura 2 Pearl
Sneaky 3
Snoopy 8

Dear Sarah, Jenny, Laura, Seanky and Snoopy:
I am very happy to hear from all of you. To answer your question, Rudolph does have a red nose - a very special red nose that shows us the way to go when the weather is bad on Christmas Eve. Santa and the other reindeer are very happy to have Rudolph to help us. I hope all of you at your house will like the presents which Rudolph and the reindeer help me deliver on Christmas Eve. Merry Christmas to all of you!
Your friend,
Santa

Dear Santa
I hope you have a nice Christmas. I would like a Baby Burps
I will leave you cookies.
Thank you,
Janet Milton

Dear Janet,
That's an awfully nice picture of me that you attached to your letter. I hope that you won't leave too many cookies for me on Christmas Eve because I don't want to spoil my appetite for the big dinner Mrs. Claus is preparing. But even so I will really enjoy the snack and the break in my travels around the world. And don't worry, I will have a nice Christmas, just as you will.
Merry Christmas,
Santa

Dear Santa Claus
Please come back for Christmas, and some mickes, mouse markers, and superstar barbie fashion up easter. How are your elves doing, and, how is Mrs. Santa doing, and, how are you doing. Thank you for these things Santa from your friend,
Kathryn
15 Hyland Ave.
Georgetown

Dear Kathryn,
What a lovely drawing you put on my letter. You print very neatly, too. Mrs. Santa and I and all the elves are just fine although we are getting a bit tired what with all the work we have getting ready for my trip. I'll be seeing you in just a little less than a week now. Have a happy Christmas.

Your friend,
Santa

Dear Santa
You are obviously a racing fan. I hope it will teach you to be a careful driver as you get older. Thank you for the snack you have promised me. I may need it before my trip is over. It gets to be pretty long night before I visit all my boys and girls.
Have a Merry Christmas,
Santa

Dear David:
Thank you for sending me your Christmas list. I can't tell you which of the toys on your list I will be delivering to your house because if I told you what I was bringing, then you wouldn't have any surprises left when you wake up on Christmas morning. But I know that you will be very happy with the toys I bring you because the elves have worked very hard making a lot of special toys for everyone.
Merry Christmas, David!
Your friend,
Santa

Dear Robert,
Another neat printer in the Lewis house. The reindeer are very well behaved. I don't know how I'd ever be ready for Christmas if it wasn't for all the work my elves do for me. We don't go out until quite late, Robert, so don't wait up for us. We'll see you soon even if you don't see us.
