Novice
Novice 4-Town 0
 The Brampton Minor Atoms last Thursday.
 The game was an exhibition game and very important to Novice 4-Town as the Brampton is one year older.
 Brampton had to score a goal in the final 30 seconds with their netminder out of the net to earn the tie.
 Making up the Georgetown lineup were Joe Balsom, Robbie Cooper, Rory Kennedy, Guy Hillock, Carolyn Grasyb, Mark Bergeron, Mark Dunning, Jason Bew, Gary Dunning, John Lorto, Randy Donovan, Robin Cocks, Wayne Brundage, Todd Norton, Ian Frutkin and Chuck Peebles.

Geminis shutout
 The Georgetown Geminis lost a tight, defensive battle to the Flyers 2-0 in Milton on Friday night.
 The Flyers scored the only goal of the first period with Rod Gooding, from Paul McCann, tallying.
 McCann, from Gooding and Rob Frame, scored in the final period to finish off the scoring. Ian Roberts blocked 21 shots in the Flyers' net to get credit for the shutout. Brad Miller faced 24 shots in the Gem net.
 It was a chippy contest as referee Doug Cowan handed out 69 minutes in penalties. Thirty-six of the minutes were made up of two to 10-minute misconducts given to Doug Barnes and Blake Shortill.

Celtics capture first place
 In Wednesday night's Georgetown Ladies' Basketball League action the Hawks scored 27 points and the Knicks 23. Sandi Lewis led the Hawks with 8 points while Janice Breen scored 5. The Knicks Jackie Sargeant hooped 11 with Irene McCauley adding 8.
 The four goals scorers for the Sabres in the loss to Oakville were John Brunl, Jim Cartwright, Peter Wicklum and Malcolm.
 The Sabre scorers in the Burlington game were Dave McGilloway, who had two, and Mark Schinkel.
 novice 4-Town
 Chuck Peebles scored two goals to lead Georgetown Novice 4-Town to a 2-2 draw with

Chapman held in check as Sabres lose three
 The Acton Sabres had a horrible week as they lost 4-3 in Burlington on Wednesday, 12-4 to Oakville on Friday and 8-5 to Milton on Saturday. The first two games were played away and the final one was played in Acton.
 Prolific scorer Dave Chapman was held to only one goal and one assist in the three games.
 Coach Bruce Chapman said Dave is having trouble hitting the scorersheet because the other teams are keying on him.
 "The other teams are really ganging up on Dave," the coach said. "But we really don't care who is doing the scoring as long as someone is."
 The man doing the scoring in those three games was Scott Malcolm. He had three goals in the Milton game and one in the Oakville game. He also picked up three assists in the three games.
 It was the second period that cost the Sabres the game against Milton. The Flyers scored six goals in that frame. One of the scorers for Milton was Pierre Pilote Jr.
 Other scorers for the Sabres besides Malcolm, in that game were Chapman and Doug Elliot.
 The game between the Georgetown Chrysler Raiders and Fort Erie Mavericks which was snowed out on December 9 has not been rescheduled yet.
 At the Raider-Thorold match last Friday it was announced the game would be played this coming Friday. However, the Raiders have received word that Fort Erie cannot field a team on that date. Therefore the game will have to be played on another night.
 The game the Raiders were to play against the Sailors in Port Colborne, which was also snowed out has not been rescheduled yet.

Junior Rebels get big win over Guelph

The Georgetown district high school boys' junior basketball Rebels played excellent basketball last week and came away with two big victories: a 60-49 win over Guelph Collegiate Vocational Institute and 62-39 win over Mississauga Woodlands.

The win over G.C.V.I. was especially satisfying for the Rebels as it is the number two ranked team in the City of Guelph.

Seniors triumph twice beat Guelph, Acton

The Georgetown district high school boys' senior basketball defeated Acton 48-33 and Guelph Gaels 59-51 in the two games it played last week.

The Rebels employed a full-court press throughout the entire game against the Gaels. The superb defensive play of Rick Goarlie, Doug Lamb and Paul Krowchuk kept the opposition off balance throughout the contest.

Top scorer for the game was Lamb with 19 while Krowchuk was good for 17.

The Rebels came on strong in the second half against Acton to take the victory. Acton actually led at the half 18-14.

There were few whistles in the game and the quick pace took its toll on both teams in the second half.

Terry Waldrum led the Rebel surge as he scored eight points in the second half. Goarlie, Bill Rivers and Lamb played a good two way game.

Graham Hill leads midgets
 The Georgetown district high school midget boys' basketball Rebels came on strong in the second half to take a 38-27 victory over Guelph Collegiate Vocational Institute.

The strong inside work of Graham Hill was a key factor in the victory as he scored 16 points from in close.

Guard Bob Davey also played a strong game as he controlled the pace with his dribbling and playmaking. Mark Shearer and Russ Power also contributed strongly to the Rebel's cause.

game was their foul shooting. Leeking was also pleased with the work of reserves Rob Rivers, John Pritchard, and Gord Miller.

The Rebels were red hot in the win over Woodlands. They shot an amazing 56 per cent as a team from the floor. Leeking employed a "run and gun" style of offense in this game and his instincts were proven right as his team scored over 60 points for the second consecutive game.

Turner was the leading scorer in this game as he was good for 16. John Karolidis and Todd has 11 each, Nelstrop and Keslick eight apiece and Fisher six.

Turner and Nelstrop shared the rebounding honors as they each had seven and Keslick had five more. Karolidis was the top playmaker with five assists.

Again Leeking said his reserves of Jan Masini, Miller, Pritchard, Rivers and Jim Allen came up big.

The win lifted the Rebels exhibition record to 6-4 and the team plays in a tournament in St. Catharines tomorrow and Friday.
