A special thanks to all the staff at Georgetown Hospital, also many thanks to all my friends who took the time to visit me and send cards and gifts while I was a patient there. I'd like to wish each one a very Happy New Year. - Russ Miller.

The family of the late John (Jack) Stoute wishes to express our sincere appreciation for the acts of kindness, moral tributes, donations to the Cancer Society, and cards. We wish to thank Dr. Trani and the nurses and staff of Ward 8 at Georgetown Memorial Hospital, Rev. Charles A. MacDonald, and the McClure Jones Funeral Home. A special thanks to Barry Mills, Cam, McFadyen and Charlie Hummen for their help and support during Mr. Stoute's confinement to our neighbours Mr. and Mrs. Morley Mills and Murray Lawton. -Loving wife Margaret, and sons Colin, Hugh, Alistair and Bruce. 3011

Thank you to the four gentlemen who came to my aid on the 10th sidewalk near Ashgrove on Tuesday Jan. 10. They dug out and pushed my Gremlin free from a bad snow drift and Mr. Bob Wolfe insured my safe return home, by driving my car himself while I followed with his companion. The weather was extremely bad and cold that day and Mr. Wolte and the other unidentified men have my sincere appreciation. Their help went well beyond the usual push off to the side of the road. To each of you I am very grateful. -A. Carning.
