

The Georgetown Raiders' Bob Fotheringham, shown making a rush here, scored three goals in the team's win over the Dundas Merchants. Tom Daley also had the hat trick for the second consecutive game.

Daley, Evans lead Raiders to win over Port Colborne

The Georgetown Chrysler Raiders got a big game from linemates Tom Daley and Ray Evans to down the Sailors 10-6 in Port Colborne last Tuesday. Coach Junior Tibbitts said his team did not get its skating legs until the third period. The Raiders had not played for over a week because their game the previous Friday was snowed out. "Once we got our skating legs and our timing down they were no match for us," Tibbitts said. Tibbitts also said that his team had to go with two lines because Neil Cotton, Colin Gordon and Art Webster were unable to make it to the game. General manager Jack Handy said that Evans and Daley completely controlled the game when they were on the ice.

Larry Peterson opened the scoring for the Raiders on a power play goal with just over three minutes gone in the game. Evans and Steve Blundy earned assists. Just over a minute after the Peterson goal Dave Stewart tied it up for the Sailors and another minute after that Daley put the Raiders back in front on a solo effort. Before the period was out the Sailors drew even again on Mike Soucie's goal. The script was exactly the same for the second period as the team's again traded two goals apiece. Evans, from Daley and Brad Butterworth, and Juri Kudrasovs, from Peterson scored for the Raiders. Wayne Dodman and Kent Kilpatrick replied for the Sailors. Georgetown tallied three consecutive times in the final period to take control of the game. Evans completed his hat trick by scoring two straight goals. Daley earned assists on both goals. Daley then scored on another solo effort and Kudrasovs tallied with his team a man short. Bob Fotheringham earned an assist. Stewart then broke the Georgetown string when he scored with the Raiders' Bob Elinesky serving a penalty. Daley then gave the Raiders a three-goal lead again with Evans setting up the play. Stewart scored again with Elinesky in the box to narrow the lead to 8-6. Georgetown scored twice in the final minutes of play. Daley completed his hat trick, with Evans getting an assist and Hoyce tallied from Fotheringham and Kudrasovs.

North Halton entry headed for provincials

By MARG AND STEW TEETZEL. Congratulations to our entry of Warren and Doris Brooke, Shirley and Steve McDermott entry in the Seagram's mixed competitions. After curling six games in one weekend they still found themselves tied (one loss each) with the Gareau rink and were forced to play another game Wednesday afternoon at Chinguacousy. This we hear they won quite handsily so it's on to Bracebridge where the winners of districts 9 to 12 meet to get two representatives to enter the provincial finals. Good curling - we're behind you "all the way". Last week we reported Harvey Chappel's rink of Mike Geofreda, Dave Woodburn and Gavin Strachen won the Halton Peel Bonspiel and because of this they qualified to enter the Mutual Life Tournament of Champions Spiel at the Victoria Club in Hamilton. With George Shapcott sparing for Mike Geofreda, Harvey's rink did extremely well losing out in an exciting final game to Ron Kimp's rink from Hamilton Glendale to place second over all in the tournament. Congratulations!

Roger Levesque's rink of Brian Callow, Wayne Taylor and Mike Makovnyk were 4th in the second event of the 14th annual Gulf Sportsmen's Bonspiel in Oakville Saturday. Marg O'Flaherty's rink of Sherrill Collins, Joanne Ukos and Marie-Emma Howlett travelled to St. Catharines Golf and Country Club where they won their two games and were tied for the trophy but by taking the aggregate points the girls found they had to be satisfied with second place. Better luck next year, Marg! Bettli Broomhead took her rink of Doreen Geofreda, Dorie Cox and Jean Brander to Guelph Tuesday and Wednesday of last week where they broke even in four close games. Lloyd and Joan Trimble teamed up with friends Joan and Wayne Stewart from Milton to enter the Muskoka International Mixed Spiel which is a big one running for two weekends. Lloyd's team did extremely well and ended up in 2nd place.

This year North Halton had an entry in the district play-downs for the Masters which is the over 60 group. Graham Farnell's rink of Jack Crichton, Howard Lindsey and Irwin Nobel journeyed to Hillsburgh last week where they won the first game and lost the second putting them on the B side which they won. Then they played Milton who were winners of the A side and they lost in the last end. Good curling fellas!
