Trader protests licence fee

A Fergus merchant who sells picture frames has objected to being charged $500 for having a two day sale in Georgetown.

Royce Tenant, told finance administration committee Monday, that he came to Georgetown about a month ago to arrange rental of the banquet room at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena for his sale. He said he was told that no deposit was required.

Mr. Tenant said he spent $500 on printing and $300 in postage to mail fliers advertising his sale of picture frames. Then two days before the sale he was told he would need to pay $500 for a licence fee

Mr. Tenant, an itinerant trader, says that in other towns and cities where he trades, the fee is between $40 to $100.

He said that with only two days before the sale he was unable to cancel it. He requested that either he be reimbursed $350 or allowed to have other sales for a period of a year

"I'm paying as much in business tax for two days as a merchant does for a whole year," Mr. Tenant said. "Is it fair to do it two days before the sale?"

Coun. Roy Booth said the $500 itinerant traders licence is because the merchant is using town-owned facilities in competition with local merchants.

Committee felt there were some questions on how many sales an itinerant trader could have for the fee, directed treasurer Ray King to supply a report for the next meeting.

Pee Wees Eliminated

The Georgetown United Rent-All Minor Pee Wees were eliminated from the Tri-county playoffs 4-3 in overtime by Ancaster in the third and deciding game

Georgetown opened the series as if they were going to rout Ancaster. Robbie Wilkes with two goals, Scott Taggart, Derek Roy, Tom Forbes and Andy Fisher all scored as Georgetown coasted to a 6-1 victory. Paul Watts picked up three assists and Tom Forbes and Gary Robertson helped set up two each.

Ancaster, facing elimination came on strong in the second game. They won 4-0 going away with Georgetown never really being in the game.

The third game was the most entertaining of the three. Ancaster scored in the first two minutes of play and it remained 1-0 until late in the game.

Forbes finally tied the score on a solo effort with only four minutes left to be played.

The teams played offensively in the overtime with Ancaster tallying three times to take the 4-3 decision. Georgetown scorers were John Catling and Watts

Esther This is one of the only two books of the Old Testament bearing the name of women around whom the narration centers. The setting is Persia, and Esther becomes the first notable woman in the Bible who lived outside Palestine.

She was of a notable Jewish family carried into captivity when Nebuchadnezzer reduced Jerusalem to want. Like many great characters in history, Esther made her first appearance as one of the humblest figures, an orphan Jewess, but 4 years later she rises to the position of queen of amazing power, a power which she managed to use wisely, as the saviour of those Jews who were refugees in Persia about 24 centuries ago. She has become one of the greatest heroines of history because she served with fearlessness, intelligence, deep insight and prudence. Mrs. T. McGee closed the meeting with prayer.

The next meeting will be the Easter Thankoffering on March 28th at 2 p.m. in the church with Rev. Mrs. Farmery of Campbellville as speaker.

Tina Yaremy of the Georgetown Red Cross was the guest speaker at the regular monthly meeting of Unit 2 of Norval United Church U.C.W. held at the home of Mrs. Elaine Crawford on Wednesday evening, March 8th. Ms. Yaremy gave a very interesting talk on the work done by the Red Cross.

Rosie Laidlaw presided for the meeting. The roll call was answered with an Easter poem or scripture verse and was interesting.

The devotional on the theme "Avoiding Realities" was given by Elaine Crawford, Phyllis Moffatt and Rosie Laidlaw.

The evening ended with lunch and a social time. Phyllis Moffatt's group were in charge of the enjoyable evening.
