

Zeta Alpha Chapter sorority report

The first meeting of Zeta Alpha in February was at the home of Jill Leiper with Bernadette Mansfield as co-hostess. Plans were made for upcoming events including a surprise wine and pizza party for the pledges upon completion of their test. The evening program was presented by Jeri Stoddart and Sharon Thorn. It was entitled "Enrichment", a documentary on U.F.O.'s. We are now wondering when we will have our "Encounter with the third kind."

February 11th was the Country Ho-Down and we all enjoyed our dosey-dozing.

At the meeting of Gail Russell with Debbie Rideout as co-hostess, we began to plan for the elections of our new officers. The program was on Purpose and Goals by Carol Elliott. Her speaker, Pat Thornton, spoke on goals for discovering yourself.

Entertaining Xi Delta Beta was lots of fun. We went bowling and then chile and wine was served at the home of Mary Black. June Campbell won the raffle for a beautiful crocheted shawl completing her birthday presents.

We all got a yearning for the south as Theta Theta entertained Zeta Alpha for a pearl dive. It was an enjoyable evening spent with our fellow sisters. They served a nice buffet of fancy sandwiches and very fattening desserts.

March 14th was the night our girls planned our resume of the year for Founders Day to be held April 29 at the North Halton Golf and Country Club. It will be a surprise until then.

At the home of Debbie Rideout, as Gail Russell as co-hostess, we held our elections. Our new executive is Ginnie Brown, president; Gail Russell, vice-president; Ann Preston, treasurer; Debbie Rideout, recording secretary; Bernadette Mansfield, corresponding secretary; and Jill Leiper and Jean Ryan as City Council representatives.

The program for that evening was entitled "Diet" by Gail Russell and Debbie Rideout. The guest speaker was the dietitian for the Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital. A pound of fat was passed around to make us realize what a pound of fat is like. Jean Ryan won a beautiful hand-made dish by Sharon Thorn. April began with a dinner meeting at the home of Jeri Stoddart with Carol Elliott as co-hostess. We admit we are all pretty good cooks. The chapter unanimously voted to send a Georgetown child to camp this summer. Our new executive began making plans for next year by appointing committees.

Congratulations are in order to Jill Leiper for donating her 10th unit of blood to the Red Cross. Rosemary Basking, an active member with the Red Cross, gave a sincere thank you to the girls of Zeta Alpha for their help during the campaign. Most of the group volunteered to help the Cancer Society on their Haffodil Day. Our program for that was on hobbies by Rosemary Basking and Ann Preston. Ann Preston showed us all her needlework and gave us a sample of a new, crowd. Rosemary Basking spoke on her hobby of Family history. She gave us the incentive to find out more about our own ancestors. "This is Your Late Gail Russell" was presented by Sharon Thorn.

Brampton NDP convention delayed

The nomination meeting for election of a federal candidate to represent the New Democratic Party in the Brampton-Georgetown riding has been postponed. The meeting was slated for tomorrow night at Brampton secondary school.

"We have problems and we will have to postpone the meeting, probably by a week," said riding association campaign organizer Joe Ferreira. "One person who was thinking of running is out of town."

There was only one in the running. Two other hopefuls has earlier expressed their intention to run for the candidacy, but have dropped out because of professional reasons Ferreira said.

John Deamer, former provincial NDP candidate for Brampton, is on holidays and could not be reached for comment on a possible federal candidacy. Ferreira said the nomination meeting date will be set after a meeting room can be arranged. He said he was hopeful it would be sometime in April.

LETTER Library expresses thanks

To the editor of The Herald: The Halton Hills Public Libraries would like to thank all those people who stuffed their old WINTARIO tickets into our collection boxes. Each of these tickets is worth 50c to us toward the purchase of a Canadian book or magazine. We have already made one substantial purchase and subscribed to many additional magazines through the generosity of donors. Each book purchased through this program will carry a special label identifying it so that all those who are interested will be able to see the benefits of their gifts.

Although the program ends on April 12th we feel that it has been an enormous success. We are particularly impressed by the cheer with which losing tickets are given up - almost always with the comment that it is nice to know the ticket is doing some good.

If you think this is a good way of helping local cultural and recreational organizations let your MPP or the Minister of Culture and Recreation, Mr. Welch, know. Perhaps we can do a lot more good with old WINTARIO tickets.

With many thanks
(Mrs.) B.R. Cornwell
Chief Librarian
