

Cancer society says thanks

To the editor of The Herald: "WELL, DONE McDONALD'S!" Sunday, April 9th, was "Daffodil Sunday" at McDonald's in Georgetown and what a happy and successful event it was! The response was fantastic.

The Halton Hills Unit of the Canadian Cancer Society wishes to express their sincere thanks and gratitude to Mr. Rick Chandler, manager of McDonald's, for sponsoring this special morning. The proceeds from each Egg McMuffin sold were donated to the Halton Hills Campaign fund.

The number of Egg McMuffins sold was 457, and this impressive figure greatly exceeded our expectations. Special thanks are in order to Mrs. Jo Lister for her co-operation and help in organizing this special event, and also to the staff who worked so hard between 7 a.m. and 12 o'clock, you did an excellent job.

A special thank you is extended to Mr. Tom Sargeant, of Sargeant Farms in Milton, who very kindly donated the eggs for the Egg McMuffins. Your contribution was greatly appreciated.

We appreciate your assistance McDonald's, in making Daffodil Sunday such a great success and especially for assuming a responsibility in supporting your community.

In closing, everyone on the executive of the Halton Hills Unit of the Canadian Cancer Society extends their warm appreciation and thanks to Mayor Tom Hill, MPP Julian Reed, MP Ross Milne, and of course to everyone who visited McDonald's for breakfast to help fight Cancer.

It is people like you who offer your support, that are making the difference in the battle against Cancer.

Sincerely,
The Executive of the
The Halton Hills Unit of the Canadian Cancer Society.

Ballinafad news

By WINIFRED SMITH
Herald correspondent
Those residents at Halton Manor having April birthdays mingled with other residents as they met in the main auditorium at the manor earlier this month.

Members of Limehouse Silverwood and Ballinafad Women's Institute jointly put on a party to honor the birthdays. Ballinafad's part in the celebration was to provide the program with Mrs. Leo Jamieson, chairman. The entertainment got underway shortly after 7 p.m. when some lively music was provided by Jesse and Ernest McEneaney on their violins with Mrs. Ernest McEneaney at the piano.

That put everyone in the mood for more to come. The men's choir sang a number. Mr. Paul Schwartz, who is also a member of the choir, sang a solo. Mr. Fred Shortall and his wife Wella, who are always a delight to hear, provided with a duet.

Mrs. Grace McEneaney gave a reading, and to add a bit on humor Mrs. Lilla Green sang a comic song. Jesse and Ernest with their accompaniment, Eileen provided more old time music to the delight of the seniors.

Concert over, the guests of honour were called to the special table set up for them which was all decked out with little favours and a nicely decorated birthday cake.

The neighbouring W.I.'s of Silverwood and Limehouse provided the sumptuous lunch which was served to all present and a happy evening for everyone came to a close.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jamieson were Rev. and Mrs. Kelvin Johnston who spent the weekend with them, and son Murray with his wife and two children, who now reside in Kincairdine spent a few days of their holidays with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Marshall were in Guelph Sunday afternoon and evening when they were guests of their granddaughter Vicky-Lyn Polo.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith spent Sunday with the Charlie Burts when they had a family gathering at their home, R.R. 2 Acton for daughter Brenda, son-in-law Ralph and little grandson Braden who left to make their home in Divville, Quebec.

Rev. Mann, who has been the pastor at Hanover Baptist Church for the past 3 years takes up his new duties on April 30th, as chaplain for the mentally retarded, where there are 80 adults, and 45 children.
