

Ashgrove Social Notes

By MRS. JOHN BELLBODDY
Herald correspondent

Now it is June, the loveliest month of the whole year, the grass and the trees seem there greenest, the flowers so beautiful and strawberries so luscious, when pleasant sight salute the eyes and pleasant scents the noses.

May was an extraordinary busy month for the First Pineview Brownies. On May 3 they visited Jane's Greenhouses on Fifth Line, where the girls identified garden tools and explained their uses. He quizzed them on names of vegetables, trees and flowers and the showed them how to pick out and plant seedlings. He gave each brownie a plant box and told her to plant a celery seedling in it.

When that was accomplished the girls were told to take them home and grow them.

Thank you Mr. Jones. Back at the Church hall, Mrs. Ria Wilson showed brownies how to cut the stems of flowers and how to know how tall your flowers should be for the size of a vase. This is information needed for the Gardener badge.

Snowy Owl took a dozen brownies to Oakville after school on May 9 to see the Six Good Turns, acted by the 43rd Chisholm Brownie Pack. They joined them for a few games and refreshments afterwards and closed with the Brownie Taps.

Brown Owl, Snowy Owl and a Wise Owl took 7 Brownies to the District Camp at Wyoka for the long weekend by bus driver by Mrs. Joyce Ruddle along with Third Pineview Brownies, Fifth Pineview Guides and First Hornby Rangers and leaders.

Highlights were a trench supper cooked by the guides and an indoor campfire did a terrific skit about a Brownie meeting on Pluto, the Pluton Brownies Sixes were different breeds of dogs with Walt Disney's Pluto and a hydrant in place of Earth's owl and toadstool. Pluton Brownies earned badges for such things as People Keeping, Bone loving and Cat Chasing.

They sang P-L-U-T-O instead of B-I-N-G-O and passed the fleas at the end of the meeting.

May 31 was the mother-daughter pot luck supper and Fly-up. Girls from First Pineview received their wings: Janet Annable, Valerie Barnes, Sandra Heaton, Marilyn Midwinter and Halle Van Wart. Janet Kempton was also welcomed into Guideland, Brown Owl and Snowy Owl were very surprised and pleased to be presented with Gloriosa plants from the Brownies. Best wishes to Ginny Marten and Leanne Wilson in their new Brownie packs in B.C. and Brampton.

Many thanks to Dianne Van Wart, our ditto processor, our busy Badge Tester, Marilyn Annable, and our Wise Owls, Beth Harper, Elaine Lewis, Corine Marten, Pat Morris and Lynn Smith for all their many evenings work.

Our appreciation is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Heaton, Mrs. Gerrits, Mrs. Kempton and Mr. Morris for driving Brownies on outings and going to group committee meetings.

Greetings to Tawny Owl who is still in hospital. Hope you'll be home soon.

See you all in September the final badge presentations for this year were given to Valerie Barnes, Gold Hand, Senior Sixer Stripe, Gardener; Sandra Heaton, Golden Hand, Skier, Neighbor; Halle Van Wart, Golden Bar, Golden Ladder, Golden Hand, Gardener; Marilyn Midwinter, Golden Hand; Joanne Fishburn, Golden Ladder; Esther Gerrits, Golden Bar; Alexandra Treviramus, Golden Bar.

Library board vacancy

A vacancy on the Halton Hills library board has opened up with the resignation after four years service of Cathy Perego, who was treasurer.

Mrs. Perego, who was the appointee of the Halton Roman Catholic separate school board said she resigned because she has taken a full time job and felt she didn't have the time to devote to library board business.

It is expected that the separate board will appoint someone to the position at its June 27 meeting. According to Cliff Bynnes, director of education, nominees for the post will be provided by Hartley Sherk who is the separate school board trustee for the area.
