No-hitter is tossed by Pee Wee pitcher

David Doucette of the Georgetown baseball Pee Wees tossed his first no-hitter ever as his team blanked Streetsville 11-0 last week. Doucette was invincible as only two Streetsville hitters managed to hit the ball out of the infield. Most of the outs were routine ground balls and Doucette took care of the nine of the hitters by strikeouts. Leftfield Kevin Gillespie made the best defensive play late in the game when he caught a ball by the foul line. This is Doucette's second year of throwing Pee Wee and he also hurled in Tyke for two years. The closest he ever came to a no-hitter before was when he tossed a four-hitter as a Tyke.

"I started getting nervous around the fifth inning," Doucette said. The Pee Wees play seven inning games.

Doucette walked five Streetsville hitters. The furthest got to second base, but he did not advance as Doucette picked him off.

The pitcher was given plenty of support as the Georgetown hitters went on a binge against the last-place Streetsville club. They knocked out 16 hits in all.

The big hitter was again Rick Greenwood, who is batting over .600 so far this season. He went four for four against Streetsville, scoring three runs and knocking in four more.

Blake Harrison, Rusty Gourlie and Jeff Budweiser fattened their averages by rapping out three hits each.

Doucette only had one hit, but it was a big one as he helped his own cause by slamming a home run. He and Gourlie each knocked in two runs.

A bigger victory for the team came last week when they defeated Burlington 4-2, behind the strong pitching of Greenwood. The victory gave Georgetown seven wins, two losses and one tie record and evened them with Burlington for first place in the league. Coach Art Budweiser said he was very pleased with his team's performance in this game. "It was the biggest victory of the year for us so far," he said.

It was a tight pitcher's duel the whole way as Burlington manage to get just five hits and Georgetown got four.

The big blow for Georgetown came right in the first inning when Gourlie followed Doucette single with a home run.

Burlington got one of those runs back in the top of the second, but Georgetown came back to score one more in each of the next two innings to run their lead to 4-1. Burlington got one back in the fifth.

Greenwood went the distance as he struck out seven batters while walking four. Only one of the Burlington runs was earned.

Jeff Budweiser and Don Gilbert knocked in the other runs for the winners.
