Brookville downs Hamilton 5-2

In a game in Hamilton on Wednesday, June 28, the Brookville Selects downed the home team by a score of 5-2. Brookville handled Hamilton easily, scoring four runs by the fourth inning and not allowing Hamilton to tally until well into the game. Brookville pitchers walked only three batters throughout the nine-inning game.

Cathy McLeod swung a big bat for the Selects, belting out a long home run in the seventh inning. Coming home to tally for Brookville were Sue Thomson, Cathy McLeod, Donna Dennis, Gloria Hamilton and Sue Lehn.

In a rival match against the Georgetown Royaltes on June 29, the Selects were edged out by a score of 8-6. It was a close game throughout with the Selects jumping ahead in the first inning, then surrendering the lead to Georgetown, in the second. A four-sacker by Donna Dennis in the third inning narrowed the Royaltes lead to 3-2. By the sixth inning the score was tied at 6-6, but Georgetown squeezed two base runners home in the top of the eighth to pull ahead and take the game despite a strong Brookville opposition.

Touching wood for the Selects were Donna Dennis, Sue Thomson, Laurie Kennedy and Robyn Snow. Georgetown's runs were scored by N. Atkinson, N. Shortill, J. Mackay, C. Carter and J. Wilkes.

The Brookville Selects will play their next home game on Thursday, when they will try to beat Brantford. Starting time is 8 p.m. on the diamond behind Brookville Public School.
