

Ashgrove social notes

By Mrs. John Bellbody
Herald correspondent

The afternoon of Tuesday Sept. 19 was the Thedemuir History meeting of the Women's Institute and thirty-five members motored to the Halton County museum at Kelso.

Everyone enjoyed the tour of this very attractive place with its well kept buildings and lovely flowerbeds, the hostess Mrs. Erle Brittain welcomed the group. Then we strolled around for an hour looking at the displays of furniture, dishes, silverware, buggies and carriages from yesteryear, at 3 p.m. President Mrs. Robt. Alexander opened the meeting with the ode and collect. Roll call was answered with an interesting comment regarding something we saw on the tour.

Mrs. John Bird was in charge of the program and reported more progress she has been doing on our own history book and hoped anyone who had clippings or pictures of interest would see that she gets them to put in it. Mrs. Hector Bird gave an amusing reading of ways of living 50 years back and the hardships our ancestors endured compared with all the conveniences we have today.

Mrs. John Bellbody gave a few lines on the good old days and some riddles on things our grandmother's never had 50 years ago.

Secretary Mrs. Craig Reed read the minutes of the May meeting, the bus trip in June, the planning meeting and the picnic in July.

Mrs. Gordon Wingfield reported for Milton Fair, Mrs. J.H. Hunter for Georgetown Fair displays, a letter of thanks was read from North Halton music festival for our donation.

Mrs. Milton Bird gave flower report, delegates were appointed to the Guelph Area convention October 30-31 in Bingham Park Kitchener.

Mrs. Marjorie Wilson gave the courtesies also presented a donation of money to Mrs. Brittain towards the museum. Meeting closed with a social hour.

Congratulations and best wishes from us all in the village to Katherine Panetta and Alfred Adriano who are being married Oct. 7, in St. Wilfrid Church, Downsview, Ontario. May they enjoy a long and happy life together.

On Sunday, October first Mr. and Mrs. C.B. Dick will celebrate their 60th (yes, that's right) wedding anniversary. Through good years and hard years they have been spared to reach their Diamond and in these times of separations and divorces that is really something.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ruddell enjoyed a few days trip up around New Liskeard, Burk's Falls and Rosseau. On Oct. 5th they will celebrate their 49th wedding anniversary.

Cheltenham W. I. report

The September meeting of the Cheltenham Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Mel Boyes with thirteen members in attendance.

The meeting opened with repeating the Mary Stewart Collect.

Roll call was answered with "A vanished landmark in our area" and there were a great many.

Mrs. Andrew Henderson read a very interesting letter written a good many years ago by a past member of the Institute telling of a Euche party she had that two pounds of butter were given as prizes at a time when we had rationing of sugar, meat and butter.

Mrs. George Caldwell read about the post offices of Albion taken from the History of Albion by Esther Heyes.

Mrs. L.E. Jaquith made and presented a map of the Cheltenham area which marked past businesses such as Sanderson's Carriage shop, Flour and Chopping Mill, Tile Works, Paint Shop, Cobblers Shop, Tannery, Saw Mill, Store and Hotel and Blacksmith Shop.

Mrs. Mel Boyes gave the courtesies and the lunch committee and Mrs. Boyes served a delightful lunch.
