An unusual mall service for some handmade gifts

Looking for something different to give as a gift?

You'll probably find what you want at Craft Village in the lower level of Bramalea City Centre.

About 25 craftspeople are selling everything from batik, to pottery to textile crafts in a permanent craft display that is unique to a shopping mall.

"With crafts increasing in popularity and the quality of crafts on the upswing, we decided to set up a craft village as a permanent showcase for the talents of the craftsmen," said Paul Muxworthy, manager, merchandising services.

Craft Village hours are 8 to 9:30 p.m. Wednesday and Friday, 2 to 9:30 p.m. Thursday and 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday.
