Music subliminal writer charges

By Gerry Landsborough
 If I hit you with words such as new wave, punk, hardcore and subliminal and went on to suggest that kids right across this country are being used - would you have any idea at all what I was referring to? For a real shocker consider the following.

The words new wave, punk, and hardcore, refer to what parents usually lump under one heading called rock 'n' roll. Rock is something that half the parents can't stand the sound of and the other half of parents couldn't care less about it. Subliminal is a message that the conscious brain does not pick up - many have referred to it as a kind of brainwashing.

Subliminals are banned in the United States. Morris Eagle a York University psychologist said "it's outrageous that people would consider ways of manipulating other people without their consent". A subliminal message is recorded at high speed in to a kind of chimpunk like chatter then it is mixed with regular music until it sounds something like a faint scratching noise but all the listener can really make out is the music itself. Subliminals are not at the present time widely used but apparently there are six Metro Toronto stores that use the device - disguised messages flashing 4000 times every half hour. "You are honest - don't steal, you will be caught if you do and you will go to jail". Because it is something that the conscious mind does not really hear the Retail Council of Canada is worried about the possible misuse of the "subliminal force."

because this is a family newspaper could not be printed here.

Punk rocks' Sid Vicious, who knifed his girl friend Nancy Spungen to death recently after a drug spree, was a creation of Malcolm McLaren a former store owner who specialized in leather and rubber clothing with sadomasochistic connotations. Punk rock was one of the short lived cults that springs up regularly among the rock industry. A-buse of self on stage with inflicted wounds - vomiting anything at all that could shock, and create a charged audience. Sid Vicious was part of a group called the Sex Pistols whose music and life was "sex, drugs and sex."

Every day of their lives teens listen to a wide assortment of music and lyrics under the heading of rock. It's not all disturbed violent sick, but there is enough of it to make the assumption that slayings such as the recent shotgun killing by a highschool student can be fostered by the pushers of garbage disguised as music.

buck even if it means emotionally destroying young minds before they even get started.

Keith Richards of the above group was recently tried on a narcotics charge in Toronto. He had in his possession $4,000 worth of heroin and according to various sources was doing "junk" for years. His sentence one year probation and a benefit concert for the blind has been called a gross miscarriage of justice. This was handed down by a judge who was quoted as saying that he had never heard of Keith Richards or the Rolling Stones. The judge has two sons age 19 and 21.

The whole abuse of music by the sickies is a frightening thing in terms of what our youngsters are hearing day in and day out. Next time your teen puts on a rock album pay attention to the hidden lyrics, hidden by volume - perhaps hidden deliberately. Who can say with any certainty that songs pushing drugs are not born in the richly furnished offices of underworld scum.

October meetings
 At the 4th meeting of the "Ashgrove Mighty Munchers" held on Oct. 16, Super Suppers were discussed. Ideas on preparing a tasty lunch with a white sauce base were talked about. The members also learned the correct way of making tea biscuits. Different groups made proper tea biscuits, over-mixed tea biscuits, under-mixed tea biscuits, wheat germ biscuits, cheese and bacon swirls and ham and mushroom supper. The subject of the 5th meeting on Oct. 23 was "Dinner's a Winner". Menu planning, energy conservation in the kitchen and the uses of gelatin were discussed. Members made Superior Steak, Cod Italiano, Pink Velvet, Maple Treasure and also sampled colourful Fruit Cocktail Loaf. By Barbara Treviranus

ON THE HOME FRONT "Menage a trois"

By SUSAN DeFACENDIS
 Herald columnist

There is another woman in my husband's life. There is nothing new about this fact, she has been around for quite some time, almost a part of the family you might say.

Yes, this rather strange 'menage a trois' consists of my husband, myself and the family car - a being referred to generally as 'Old Bessie'. Unfortunately, my husband and Old Bessie share a rapport that Bessie and I have never been able to achieve. While I have been known to 'fill 'er up' and give her an occasional pat on the fender for getting me to where I want to go, I think she has been constraining these efforts, probably quite correctly, as being somewhat patronizing on my part.

My husband of course, appears to remain quite impervious to the friction this very close three-way relationship imposes but, in my opinion, Old Bessie gets far more attention than she deserves, what with him constantly fooling around with her distributor cap and trifling with her spark plugs.

RARE OCCASIONS
 I am sure it is more than mere coincidence that, on those rare occasions when I have had to dramatically collapse on the floor to draw his attention to the fact that I am unwell, it is only a matter of hours before my husband will discover Bessie's timing is off.

"She's jumping," he will mutter to himself as he frantically places a phone call to the mechanic who is almost a Bessie specialist (a telephone number incidentally, he is more familiar with than that of his family doctor).

"I'll bet she's jumping," I will feverishly mutter back vindictively from my sick bed. "Jumping with jealousy?" With this state of affairs thus continuing, it was not at all surprising to me when Bessie threw a transmission tantrum on the eve of my birthday. In deference to my distraught husband however, I tried to be as understanding as circumstances would allow.

"If Bessie's medical bill is about to eliminate my chance of a birthday gift, I am leaving home," I stated. TAKE A TAXI
 "Well, you'll have to take a taxi," he replied. Obviously the poor man was not thinking clearly. "Besides, be reasonable. If Bessie won't run, I can't get to work and you and the kids won't eat for two weeks". What is one to do in the light of such unrelenting male logic?

Why can't he be the same as any other red-blooded North American man and find himself a blonde? - I could possibly handle that situation. But can you imagine trying to explain to a family counsellor: "Well, it's about this little competition problem that exists between me and a humanoid mean machine...".
 Sure, lady.

Ballinafad News

By WINIFRED SMITH
 Herald correspondent

Mr. Joe Mathews of "Ball-Erin" farm was host to about 40 guests at a birthday supper recently. Many out-of-town relatives and friends of long standing attended. They came from Burlington, Hespeler, Cambridge, Fergus, Belwood, Alton, Minden, Oshawa, Mono-Centre, Shelburne and many parts of Metro Toronto. The Autumn leaves were at their best making travelling exceptionally pleasant.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Sanderson, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sanderson and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Sanderson were guests at the recent wedding of Velma Linham and Mark Clark. The ceremony was held at Limehouse Presbyterian Church and the reception took place at the Acton Curling Club. Velma is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Linham and a niece of Mrs. Willard Sanderson.

The Hallowe'en Dance at the Community Centre on Saturday night was very successful. Most couples came in costume. The prize for the best dressed couple went to sisters Penny and Arlene Shortill.

The credit for the funniest went to four people as it was in the form of a long caterpillar. They were Karen Smith, Hank Burnett, Clarence and Anne Bronston. Prizes for the most original costume went to Job-anne Kelly. Best dressed Hallowe'en couple was Mr. and Mrs. Murt Anderson.

There was a special lucky draw and five others won Ontario Lottery Tickets. The Hall Board served refreshments consisting of hot soup, rolls, home-made pumpkin pie and coffee. It was a fun night which all enjoyed.

Four members of "The Ballinafad Branch" of the W.I. attended the Dessert Euchre at Norval on Saturday afternoon. It was an annual party sponsored by the Norval Branch of the W.I. There was a large number attending and a very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by all. It was held at the spacious new home of the May family on the town line.

Instead of a sermon at Church on Sunday. The congregation divided up into discussion groups. The topic was "Telling My Story and Sharing My Faith." The children enjoyed their story before going down to Sunday School classes.

Halton Queen in finals

By Henry J. Stanley
 Nancy McKinnon, our Halton Furrow Queen, was most successful in the Furrow Queen Competition at the International Plowing Match. Nancy plowed and gave her speech along with 27 other competitors from across the province. At the Awards Banquet on Friday evening, September 29th, she was announced as one of the top five finalists. The winner was Lorne Frame of Brant County who took over from the 1977 winner, Lynne Stewart of Hornby.

Our Halton Furrow Queen Competition will again be held at our Halton Plowing Match on Saturday, October 28th on the farm of Allan Cook, Bell School Line and No. 2 Side Road in Burlington. Everyone is cordially invited to come to this match and watch the young ladies plow along with all the other competitors. Winners will be announced at our banquet and awards presented at the Masonic Hall at 7 p.m. that evening.

YOUR WEEK AHEAD By DAMIS

- ARIES Mar. 21-Apr. 19 It is not the time to make friends. So...don't participate in a social activity that could lead to a questionable friendship.
- TAURUS Apr. 20-May 20 It is highly probable that a provocative discussion will explode among your associates. Avoid anything that is connected with politics or religion.
- GEMINI May 21-June 20 Don't take on a project for which you are not qualified. It's shown in your chart a failure to recognize your own limitations.
- MOONCHILD June 21-July 22 Your long range plans will be affected, in one way or another, by someone's change of residence.
- LEO July 23-Aug. 22 New duties will not alter or disturb your secret long term plans. Actually, added responsibilities will not jeopardize your future.
- VIRGO Aug. 23-Sept. 22 It's a fact of life, many members under your sign are now entering a "shady deal." Don't fool yourself for justification of motives.
- LIBRA Sept. 23-Oct. 22 This happens to be one of those weeks when you shouldn't be concerned about what someone has done - worry about what they are going to do!
- SCORPIO Oct. 23-Nov. 21 According to stellar patterns - your sign can do no wrong. You are in for a piece of good luck.
- SAGITTARIUS Nov. 22-Dec. 21 It seems as though we always want the thing we can't have. Bluntly, that's going to be your hang up, this week.
- CAPRICORN Dec. 22-Jan. 19 A member of the opposite sex is doing you harm behind the scenes, heed the warning.
- AQUARIUS Jan. 20-Feb. 18 You are very impulsive, right now, concerning affairs of the heart. There's a chance of a change in your romance pattern.
- PISCES Feb. 19-Mar. 20 It is highly probable that a new project is on the way. Gain from past experience.
- Personality Profile: For your Sun Sign Analysis send the day, month, year and place of birth, plus $1.00 for postage and handling to Dr. Dennis Slatt, P.O. Box 526, Port Huron, Michigan 48130.
