Gerry Inglis Returns As Raider Coach

The 1978-79 hockey season marks the return of Gerry Inglis as the Georgetown Raiders' coach.

Inglis in his first tenure as the team's coach led the Raiders to their most successful string in history.

Before he left Inglis led the Raiders to three straight O.H.A. Intermediate "A" titles in a row.

For the past four years Inglis has been coaching Junior "B" hockey, first in Dixie and then in Milton.

Last year he led the Milton Flyers to the league finals before they were downed by the powerful Streetsville Derbys.

When Inglis was named Raiders' coach earlier this year he told reporters that he would ice a big, hardnosed team. To that end he signed newcomers Brian Mc
