

Gerry Inglis Returns

Brainey, Ron Fogal and Ray Tonelli, as well as others. All three of the above mentioned players are former pros and certainly big and hardnosed.

Also with the team this year is goaltender Peter McDuffe, who has played in both the World Hockey Association and the National Hockey League.

The team claimed two O.H.A. Senior "A" victims. They easily downed the Whitby Iroquois and the Barrie Flyers.

The Raiders also trounced the Intermediate "B" Milton Tridents in two exhibition meetings.

It would appear the Inglis Raiders, with a mixture of veterans and youth, are much improved over last year's squad, which went all the way to the league final before being eliminated.

Inglis has made no bones about the Hardy Cup emblematic of Canadian Intermediate hockey supremacy, being his goal this year.

Judging from the preseason games and the strenuous workouts it appears Inglis has the horses to make a serious run at realizing his goal.
