Novices play good game to beat Milton 4-2

The Georgetown North Halton Sports Camp Novice Reps played a smooth, controlled game against their arch-rivals Milton Sunday at Alcott Arena and came away with a well-earned 4-2 win.

Davin Cigen opened the scoring for the Novices at the 1:25 mark of the first period with Wayne Snow and Peter Atherley earning the assists.

Todd Hlyshko tied the score for Milton less one minute later on a solo effort.

John Lortio scored the only goal of the second period to put the Novices out in front again. Captain Pat McCarthy earned the assist.

Lortio scored with less than two minutes gone in the third period to put Georgetown up by two goals. It was on a solo effort.

McCarthy then scored on another solo effort to put Georgetown up for three for the first time. Just eight seconds later Hlyshko tallied for Milton to make it a 4-2 final.

The Novices' win was a present for their coach Charlie Hanman, who was back behind the bench after spending some time in the hospital.

The Georgetown attack was very well balanced and the two goaltenders both played well.

Major Atoms have bad week, earn one point in 3 games

The Georgetown Firefighters and McNally Construction Major Atoms had their worst week of the young season earning only one tie in three games.

The tie came against Streetsville 1-1 and then they lost 6-3 to both the Burlington and Milton teams. The Milton contest was an exhibition game.

Georgetown had a strong offensive showing, but ran into a hot goaltender in Streetsville. They moved the puck well in the offensive end, but just could not finish the plays.

The only goal for the majors came from Dean Irvine with Mike Teetzel earning the assist.

Teetzel moved up to forward from defense for this game.

Burlington earned a very strong game in playing the 6-3 win over Georgetown.

Scoring in a losing cause were Mark Howie, on an unassisted effort in the first period, Irvine from P. Braun and Danny Kent, and Brian Doherty.

from Gord Paterson and Scott Campbell.

Burlington outshot Georgetown 20-14 in the contest.

Georgetown was in the game for two periods against Milton, but the "Green Machine" came on to completely take over in the final 20 minutes.

Milton scored five times in that third period to take the victory.

Howie scored a picture goal in the second period to give them a 1-1 tie.

The only highlight for Georgetown was in the final period was Howie's goal from Harley and Chris Hodgins.

Milton outshot Georgetown 24-12 in the contest. Steve Tucker came up with some excellent saves in the Georgetown net.

Major Bantams on top of league

The D.H.G. Stationary Major Bants continued to lead their team league with wins over Streetsville and Brampton last week.

Their record to date is 7-1 and 1. Injuries continue to plague the team but the boys refuse to quit their winning ways.

In Streetsville, the team outskated their opponents with a convincing 5-2 victory. Goals and assists were: White from Haller and Adams, Adams from Morrow and Warnock.

Haller from Hatcher, South from Marcolini and Morrow from White and Adams.

On Sunday in Georgetown in front of a very supportive crowd the Bants were victorious over the second place Brampton squad 6-4. Paul

Raiders fifth in league standings

The Georgetown Raiders are in last place in the intermediate "A" southern division standings.

The Raiders have four points, two behind both the Port Colborne Sailors and Fort Erie Mavericks. The Raiders have a game in hand on both teams.

The Dundas Merchants have gotten off to a very fast start as they have won eight of their first nine games.

The Merchants only loss came Sunday night at Port Elgin by a 9-3 score.

Port Elgin and Collingwood are battling it out in the northern division. Port Elgin has 15 points after 10 games and Collingwood 12 after eight games.

Orangeville has yet to win a game after six outings. In those six games they have allowed 57 goals.

Although the Raiders have a losing record they still have a good goals-for-against ratio. They have scored 36 while giving up 39.

Here are the standings:

Minor Pee Wees split two games

The Georgetown United Rent-All Minor Pee Wees finally lost as they ended up on the short end of a 7-4 score against Burlington last Tuesday. The team rebounded to take a 4-3 win over Ancaster later in the week.

In the loss to Burlington, Georgetown got off on the right foot at Keith Rieger opened the scoring in the first period. Later in the frame Burlington went ahead on goals by Mike Hopkins and Phillip Springstead.

Georgetown fell behind 4-1 after the second period with Marco Gagnon and Hopkins scoring for Burlington.

In the third period each team scored three goals. Scoring for Georgetown were Wayne Morrow, from Mike O'Brien and Stephen Marcolini, O'Brien, from Morrow and Morrow, from Andy Hughes and Shawn Coffey, Hopkins and John Ferguson with two had the Burlington goals.

Missing from the Georgetown lineup were goaltender Stephen Roy, Danny King and Glen Leslie.

Georgetown jumped out ahead in the first period against Ancaster with Andy Hughes scoring in the first period.

Coffey and Morrow earned the assists.

Rick Schoeman tallied early in the second period to tie the score for Ancaster. Todd Cull, from Brent Smith, and Morrow then put Georgetown ahead by two.

Ancaster then got goals from Schenman and Don Nelles in the third period to tie the score again.

Glenn Leslie then connected on an unassisted goal with just 19 seconds left on the clock to give the Georgetowners the victory over the tough Ancaster squad.

Third Party Totals
 Since 1880, there have been only four presidential elections in which all three parties together polled more than 10 per cent of the vote: James Baird Weaver and his Populist Party, 1892; Theodore Roosevelt and the National Progressives, 1912; the La Follette Progressives, 1924; and, George Wallace's American Party, 1968.
