Gerry among the top stars

By Gerry Landsborough
Herald columnist

We thought we'd have a little fun with astrology this week. The following is a quick once over of sun signs - your sun sign is the most common and popular aspect of astrology, it is the position of the sun on your day of birth. If you're a non-believer read on and we just might wet your curiosity.

ARIES . . . (March 21 to April 20) A common trait for people born when the sun was in Aries is impatience. These people are always in a hurry to be one step ahead in life. They have a strong desire to be number one - to come first. When an Aries person decides to talk it over it doesn't matter what time of day or night it is. Aries faces up to anything or anybody. Not much for taking pills, he or she probably doesn't even believe in aspirin. Aggressive and often tactless yet never unsure of where they stand an Aries marches into the thick of things. Aries enjoys doing favours yet wants the recognition that he feels he justly deserves. If you have a friend who won't hesitate to say what is on his mind he's probably an Aries.

TAURUS . . . (April 21 to May 21) Stubborn like a bull - that's Taurus. Unusually healthy Tauruses don't catch things but when they do they are slow to recover because they won't follow doctors orders. They have a love for money and can be quite tight with it. They enjoy art and music and often have wonderful singing voices. They love the colour blue and the colour green like in paper money. Conservatives you'll seldom find Taurus on the hippie side of life.

GEMINI . . . (May 21 to June 21) Gemini is the quick change artist of the zodiac. They love it today, they hate it tomorrow. They can change their minds a thousand times yet each time they are absolutely sure that's what they want. They love to talk and are very eloquent in speech. Some people believe that Gemini's were born on the telephone because male or female they spend a great deal of their time on Mr. Bell's invention. They are never satisfied doing one thing at a time, they are usually found doing two or three things and they can manage it all quite well.

CANCER . . . (June 22 to July 23) Cancerians are mood people and are constantly moving from one mood to another. Cancer is ruled by the moon and often you can tell a Cancerian from the crazy "lunar laughter". Like their namesake the crab they can be quite crabby but I would not want to be the one to mention it. All Cancerians love their home and like the shell of the crab it is a safe refuge from the world outside. Cancerians always need to know that you can't live without their love or friendship.

LEO . . . (July 24 to August 23) Find a mirror and the one standing in front of it combing his mane. I mean hair, is probably a Leo. The lion rules his den 100 per cent he doesn't want a career girl for a mate - you can count on that. Leo's male and female alike have a great knack for fixing things. Arragant, you like a real king, you have to give them their due. When you think of a Leo think of a pussy cat but you had better remember that all cats have claws. They can be the most charming and kindest of people if you remember that you're dealing with a king or queen.

VIRGO . . . (August 24 to September 23) If you know someone that has a pill for

Silver Wood Women hold evening meeting

By MRS. L. GIFFEN
Herald correspondent

Mrs. G. Ironside of Acton was hostess for the evening meeting of Silver Wood Women's Institute on November 10 for Citizenship and World Affairs.

Mrs. B. Lindsay, our President opened the meeting reading a poem This Land, followed by the Institute Ode and the Mary Stewart Collect. A two minute of silence was observed. The minutes of the October meeting were read and approved as was the treasurer's report.

Thirteen members and one visitor answered the roll call. Name a prominent person the news.

Mrs. I. Carmichael gave a very favorable report of the garage sale held recently. We hope to make this a yearly event.

Mrs. Corbett gave the Motto - A woman who wants things done finds a way; one who

Mrs. Ironside introduced Mrs. Grace Robertson of Acton Flower Shop. She demonstrated some very appropriate Christmas arrangements we could make.

Mrs. Ironside thanked Mrs. Robertson and presented her with a token of appreciation.

A social time was had with a cup of tea and lunch. Mrs. Beency gave the courtesies.

Exercise pointers for all you party-goers

By SUSAN DeFACENDIS
Herald columnist

As the glorious warmth of the recent Indian summer begins to cool, the social season conversely warms up.

Well, this sudden spurt of party activity may be alright for the younger generation, those under 25's who live at a generally frenetic pace all year long without their complexions crumbling, and who are blessed with muscles that do not lock into instant rigor mortis at the first few bars of disco music.

It would also appear to leave the older generation unaffected; those who are well beyond the days of having to stumble home at dawn, just in time to greet an already rising family who insist upon watching a.m. cartoons at an incredibly high decibel level.

HEALTHY SUFFER

No, it is us "in-betweeners" who really suffer from the ravages of this sudden upsurge of night life glitter, after a sedentary summer spent in watching the crabgrass take over suburbia.

After a recent Saturday night party that left me spaced out for 48 hours, I have come to the belated conclusion that one needs to train for the winter season as rigorously as a marathon runner, if one is to survive from the first November party through to the final Easter Bunny Hop, or whatever.

Now you have a glimpse of the sun signs - next week we'll suggest how each sign will get the most from Christmas and what gifts are appropriate.

Without needing oxygen at all, in preparation for the hot, smoke filled dance halls.

This exercise can also be combined with an early morning run amid rush hour traffic on the 401, designed to not only help you survive a lack of oxygen, but to prevent your spine from seizing up at the first wild Tarentella of the season.

You can turn your days and nights around by staying up later each night, until you can dance through to dawn without yawning once all day. This only works successfully of course, if you have a boss who is existing in the same state of "non-being" from 9 to 5 as yourself.

As you can see, with a small amount of ingenuity and forethought you can survive almost anything, it is just that we "in-betweeners" have to work a little harder at it all.

YOUR WEEK AHEAD By DAMIS

ARIES Mar. 21-Apr. 19 On vacation, watch your diet. There is a probability you might have problems with food, take basic precautions.

TAURUS Apr. 20-May 20 You are finally coming into your own when your opinions will be listened to. As a result, help will come on your project.

GEMINI May 21-June 20 For those under your sign so inclined there's a chance of becoming physically attracted to a member of the opposite sex.

MOONCHILD June 21-July 22 Your long range plans are becoming affected -- someone's change of residence or occupation is the determining factor.

LEO July 23-Aug. 22 Stop feeling sorry for yourself. Take the bull by the horns, and tend to the tasks at hand. Self pity is hovering.

VIRGO Aug. 23-Sept. 22 This week, you will not be the easiest person in the world to understand. Your actions will confuse -- even you!

LIBRA Sept. 23-Oct. 22 A member of the opposite, whether platonic or physical will not be on the best of terms this week. Be careful.

SCORPIO Oct. 23-Nov. 21 Take nothing for granted. You are heading for a very critical period -- as far as affairs of the heart go.

SAGITTARIUS Nov. 22-Dec. 21 A new friend, or an old friend will be highly productive as time goes by. This week they will come into focus.

CAPRICORN Dec. 22-Jan. 19 Can't you do it on your own this week? Your chart shows you looking for someone who holds most of the answers.

AQUARIUS Jan. 20-Feb. 18 Align your obligations according to priority. Take care of the tasks at hand -- don't dwell on that long term project.

PISCES Feb. 19-Mar. 20 A legal document plays an important role in today's activities. It is really nothing to worry about.

ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: Eighteen months ago, I wrote to you about my husband who was a victim of the "seven-year itch". We had four children under six years of age when suddenly he took a fancy to a divorced friend of his sister's -- of all things. I followed your advice and let the affair wear itself out. He came back on his knees and has been an awfully good boy ever since.

I'm ashamed to tell you what I'm writing about this time. Four months ago, I became involved with a friend of my brother's. We had known each other for at least 15 years and it never entered my head that this man could set me on fire. To this day I don't know how it happened.

Last week I decided the affair had to end and told him so. But he won't let me alone. The idiot wants to marry me. I explained it is out of the question -- there are seven children involved. He keeps threatening to tell my husband, thinking I'll get thrown out and have to marry him.

Please tell me what to do, and no sermons, Ann. I've already called myself every name in the book. -- Ashamed Of Me.

Dear YOU: Your ex-lover is taking the blackmail route, which leaves you only one alternative. Tellyour husband about the affair at once. Now it's HIS turn to forgive. I'm betting he will. Please write and let me know if I'm right.

Dear Ann Landers: It has taken me two weeks to get up the nerve to write this letter. I hope you won't think I am terrible. I am a 15-year-old guy.

I'm sure I have given myself a hernia from masturbating. I have this ache in my stomach, real low on the right side and it won't go away.

I can't go to a doctor because he will know what I've been doing and I just couldn't face it. I can't tell my folks because they might gossip. Please help me. -- A No-Good Kid.

Dear Friend: Nobody ever got a hernia from masturbating. In fact, self-manipulation is a normal part of growing up. About 98 per cent of all normal boys do it, and about 95 per cent of all normal girls. This is the way humans discover their sexual feelings.

I hope you will see a doctor at once about that pain. You don't have to mention anything about masturbating. It's amazing how many young people write to me about this. They are scared, ashamed and full of guilt. We keep hearing that the kids today are ultra-sophisticated and "know too much." Your letter proves that it's not true. Thanks for giving me a chance to help a lot of young people today.

Car sandwiched in 3-car collision

A three-car collision on Mountainview Road North resulted in $2,100 damage last week.

A Datsun, driven by Raymond Clark, 17, of Georgetown, was stopped in the north-bound lane of Mountainview Road North, waiting to make a left turn into McDonald's, when a pick-up truck, unable to stop in time, struck the car in the rear. When the car was pushed into the south-bound lane by the collision, it was struck by a third vehicle, a van driven by Robert Dedman, 28, of Brampton. The pick-up was driven by Donald Leatley, 36, of Glen Williams.

No one was injured in the accident. The pick-up truck suffered $250 damage to the front left corner. Damage to the car was estimated at $1,500 to the front end and the rear. Damage to the van was estimated at $350.
